700 Games volunteers needed

The St. Albert Games Board reported to the Gazette a "not very successful" Games Volunteer Week.

Last week was declared Games Volunteer Week by the Board, and Mayor Ron Harvey made an official proclamation to that effect, but the people of St. Albert didn't come out in droves.

A total of 1400 volunteers will be needed to help stage the Alberta Summer Games, which will be held here August 2 - 6.

About half of that figure has come forward, but hundreds of small jobs still have to be handed out. The variety of positions for volunteers is great, so it is worth the look to see where YOU can help.

In a survey taken over the winter by Wally West of West Public Relations, 40 percent of the residents of St. Albert surveyed said they would help in a volunteer role, while 60 percent said they wouldn't.

It appears the 40 percent haven't come forward like they planned to.

relations director for the St. Albert Games Board, said that many young people could help out with some of the positions. He added that several hundred application forms for volunteers were taken from the Games booth at the Trade Fair and from the Games Volunteer booth at Grandin Mall last week. Only a few of these applications were returned to the Percy Page Centre.

It's time for residents of St. Albert to take up the challenge of what appears to be the "best Games yet." All it will take is a few hours of your time at the beginning of August, so "come forward and help out." That's the message from the Games people. They need you.

Drop by the Percy Page Centre on Mission Avenue and fill out a form, and let them know what area you can help.

Youths evade three RCMP road blocks

Two youths were apprehended and charged after they ran three roadblocks early Saturday morning.

Seventeen year old Keith William Kingshott of Sherwood Park has been charged with criminal negligence in the operation of a motor vehicle, theft over $200, driving with a blood alcohol level over .08, and driving with a suspended license. Seventeen year old Roger Bernard Sattler, also of Sherwood Park, was charged with theft over $200 in connection with the incident.

Correction

Last week the Gazette inadvertently credited the Catholic School Board with a sizable tax increase when it was the Protestant Board which should have received accolades.

Both Boards share the same rate for the first time in several years. Both are asking about $265 from the average taxpayer.

Summer Hours

Commencing today, the Gazette will be switching to a summer hours schedule. The only change will be our Saturday hours. There will not be any. Through the week we're open 8:00 a.m. to at least 5:00 p.m. (most days we don't get out until 5:30 or 6:00 p.m.). Mondays we're here until 9:00 p.m. and Tuesday we're open half the night as we rush towards press time.

Post office bungle

Somebody's not carin' about Ms. Caron's mail

The name was close but the destination was all wrong.

Elaine Caron says she can understand how Canada Post could send her a letter addressed to Suzanne Karen. The last names, she says, do at least sound alike. However, what she can't understand is how the post office could send the letter almost 2,600 miles in the wrong direction.

St. Albert, Alta. and St. Hubert, Que. don't even sound alike! "You better believe they missed," was Mrs. Caron's reaction to Canada Post's mistake. "How in hell's name did it arrive here when it was supposed to go the other way?"

The letter was mailed on May 23 from Camrose. Eight days later it arrived at Mrs. Caron's door -- half a continent away from where it was supposed to be.

One excuse the post office may have is that both Mrs.

Caron and Ms. Karen live on Maple Drives. Unfortunately, Mrs. Caron lives at number 14 and Ms. Karen resides at 51.

Don Ray, a customer relations representative with Canada Post in Edmonton, says the misdirected letter is probably due to the similarity in the cities' names. "Somebody just saw 'Saint' and sent it off," Mr. Ray said he didn't know if machines or men were responsible for the error, but "coding machines can make mistakes in the same way that hand-sorting can."

He added that the absence of a postal code on the letter was another reason for the error. In reaction to this explanation, Mrs. Caron said "there are certainly a lot of 'Saints' around, and if they'd only read one line further they'd have seen 'Quebec' instead of sending it off to Alberta."

In any case the wandering letter is now on its way. It may even be in St. Hubert by now. Or is it St. Paul? or St. Catherine's? or St. John's? or St. Stephen? or St. Thomas? or St. ....?

Road Blocks

The Westlock RCMP Detachment was informed of the vehicle and they too set up a road block. The vehicle, a pick-up truck, evaded that block as well, and headed towards Westlock on Hwy. 18. It collided with one RCMP car and on two occasions entered the ditch itself. After coming back onto the highway, the truck was stopped and the two occupants were arrested.

Legion to assist with Games Transportation

The St. Albert branch of the Royal Canadian Legion has been asked and will provide a courtesy car service for the Alberta Summer Games, to be held here August 2-6.

The operation of transporting athletes and VIP's from one venue to another will be a demanding one, but the Legion is looking forward to the challenge and an opportunity to assist with the staging of the Games.

To fulfill this request, the Legion will need about 100 drivers with their cars. Anyone interested in volunteering a few hours over the five day period can call the branch office at 458-3330.

The Legion added that it will be a pleasure to be personally involved with some of the outstanding athletes of Alberta, and noted that volunteers will also feel a great amount of community satisfaction in assisting.

French Immersion ECS parents ask Board accounting of fees

Thursday of last week about 35 members of the ECS French Immersion parents advisory committee gathered in Father Jan School to discuss the program and program fees (Resource Learning Centre) levied by the Catholic School District.

The group asked the district to perform an accounting of transportation fees assessed French Immersion ECS students in 1978-79. They were told by district administrators that provincial grants had been received by the district to cover the cost of busing the pupils but that part of the transportation fees had been used toward costs associated with busing parish kindergarten pupils not covered by provincial grants. The arrangement, they said, had been agreed to by parents of French ECS pupils when they broke away from the Parish Kindergarten. The coming year will see no overlap in Boards, however, and a new agreement has been put into effect. The Parish Kindergarten will be picking up the full transportation tab.

CONCERN ALSO EXPRESSED OVER PROGRAM FEE LEVY AND LACK OF COMMUNICATION WITH CATHOLIC BOARD

Aside from, but associated with, transportation fees was a feeling among parents present that communication was lacking between the board and themselves. One woman told the group, "There should be a lot of parental input and there isn't." When the matters of assessing program fees, or instituting new programs come up parents would like to be contacted before a decision goes ahead. They feel they can make a valuable and necessary contribution in many areas associated with the education of their children and would like the opportunity to do so.

May 28 the Catholic School Board voted to assess a program fee to French Immersion ECS students to cover the costs of a Resource Learning Centre (library). The action, according to District Superintendent Bill Zielinski, followed precedent in that last year there had not been any consultation with parents prior to levying of fees.

Parents present did not find fault with the fee as such but the way in which it was assessed. Most felt it unfair to let ECS shoulder the cost of establishing a resource learning centre. If grades one through three would also be using the centre then they should share in the cost. Parents said they would like a joint consensus among parents, teachers and administrators on the use of, and method of assessing, any program fees. Better communication of this sort they reasoned would eliminate any bad feelings arising over similar situations in the future.

As things worked out the 1978-79 French Immersion ECS Committee decided to leave the matter of program fees to the incoming 1979-80 ECS Committee. They chose not to ask the Catholic School Board to rescind its motion of May 28 which approved an $8 per child per month program fee. The majority, by their actions at the meeting appeared prepared to share in the costs of a resource learning centre on an equal basis for all grades in the French Immersion program. The next move will be up to the new committee if it chooses to ask for a review of fees.

The administration reasons that the fee is justified. ECS programs are not compulsory as is grade school and are not funded to any great extent by the province. Therefore the Catholic School District administration has chosen to pass along costs to those incurring the costs. Administrators also feel it would be discriminatory to charge more for the French program than the English program from grade one and up.

The Gazette's entertainment editor, Vicky Knight, has received a local award for her theatre review work in connection with Edmonton's second annual First Night Awards.

Radio CKXM has given Ms. Knight a Good News Award for her "outstanding job done in organizing and participating" in the annual review and awards ceremony.

In addition, Alberta Culture has sent Ms. Knight a letter noting that her "critical observation of the season" as well as her "daily vigilance are a fine tribute to the theatre arts explosion in Edmonton and Alberta." Congratulations Vicky!

that changes be made to Mission Park Tire playground. The board had requested that the city comment on safety measures after members of the public pointed out hazards which existed because of the close proximity the Father Jan site has to the Mission Park ball diamond.

In a letter to the District Secretary-Treasurer Ted Baldwin, acting recreation superintendent Rich Mercier made some recommendations. He suggested removal of the large structure closest to the playing field (along the left field foul line). It was also suggested that to achieve a minimum safety standard the tire and chain on the pole nearest the field be removed.

No recommendation has yet come to the board from the Building and Sites Committee but from talk on the subject it looks doubtful whether any changes will occur.

The playground is located on School Board land and was apparently approved by Community Services prior to its construction. It is also likely that this is the last year the ball diamond will be in use. Plans are to phase it out with construction of a new diamond in Woodlands. Mission tennis courts will likely be expanding in the area.

THE RIGHT TO KNOW

The taxpayers of St. Albert are entitled to a complete accounting of what they have invested in Campbell Park, beginning in March, 1977, with the city's venture into the private sector by buying the quarter section for 3.55 million dollars, and including the full total of monies spent since. In addition to interest on the borrowing, such an accounting would include all monies spent on salaries and wages for all staff time devoted to park concerns over the 27 months. Funds for servicing, and for the railway spur, and park roadways including any city equipment and workers employed as well as that contracted out, should be delineated. The public should know the full total spent for promotion and advertising by the city itself and by any realtors and/or agents employed by the city to handle sales and promotion since purchase of the park.

The public also has the right to know whether the same high standards of landscaping, building construction and aesthetics, pollution and noise control are required in Campbell Park as are required of developers in the private sector.

Citizens have the right to know what ongoing costs of maintaining internal roadways in Campbell Park will be, and whether it will add to the cost of public transportation, already running at a high deficit. Anyone who visited Campbell Park to observe the roads being built in Phase 1 will be well aware of the large difficulties encountered due to unstable soil and base conditions in the low-lying swampy area.

Taxpayers should also be informed what proportion of Provincial road grants is being absorbed in the current five-year program for roads leading to the park, and what grant monies will remain for other needed arterials. The city-owned Campbell Park may not be like a private industrial park, where the municipality can assess the private developers with road-front footage costs. In this case the 149 - 156 Street link, proposed by council to make the park viable, would be shared by the city and province.

With a full cost-accounting of monies spent on this city-owned park, plus budget estimates of upcoming expenditures, the public was not in a position to judge whether Phase 11 should go ahead, yet council has already made this decision with only Alderman Shields questioning the wisdom of proceeding with Phase 11, when it is not known "how much net profit could be expected from Stage 1."

Council has already been warned by an expert from E.R.P.C. that warehouse/storage type development will not bring in the amount of tax assessment needed to make the park viable. Yet that is exactly the type of development council announced last week they were negotiating with one developer for 7.3 percent of the land available in Phase 11. It is fine for Alderman Smith to say "if we are sincere about improving the tax base -- we have to commit ourselves to servicing (Phase 11) when the demand is there." But if the proper return is not there, it could be the taxpayers are only throwing good money after bad.

Phase 11 is located right on top of Woodlands subdivision, a well-planned neighbourhood with homes ranging from $90,000 to over $200,000. Therefore only clean, quiet developments can be tolerated in Campbell Park.

It should be remembered that the former mayor and two members of the present council said, when opposing the Bechtel assembly plant in that same area, that the Bechtel tax revenue would be more than offset by the decline in value of homes, and resulting lower taxes, bordering Hebert Road.

The present council did not hold public budget meetings and voters will never know how each alderman questioned the expenditures and over-all budget. In our view those closed meetings were not fair to voters.

In the case of the publicly-owned Campbell industrial park the taxpayers have the right to complete and detailed information.

It is incredible that even city council members, following the bringing down of the budget for 1979, do not have information on the cost of Stage 1 of Campbell Park.

Taxpayers revolt - in Canada? It's time says HALT

Not all Canadians are as apathetic as they were made out to be during the election campaign. A Vancouver based group called HALT (Human Action to Limit Taxes) will be sending two representatives to Edmonton from June 9 to 15 and their message is clear: it is time to call a halt to taxation, which is presently confiscating 50 percent of income from Canadians.

In the nine months since three Vancouver people drew up the Taxpayer's Charter and attracted 175 people to launch HALT, membership has grown to 1,300, and spread out from Vancouver to Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Ontario.

HALT's concerns are two-fold: taxation is undermining the economic survival and taking away the individual freedoms of Canadians.

The group's Charter declares that total income taxes be reduced to a maximum of 10 percent. That all property taxes be reduced to a maximum of one percent of the market value of such property. That each citizen has the right to receive payment of wages in full, without deduction of taxes by employers. That the search and seizure powers of the Income Tax Department over our homes, personal savings, and businesses be abolished as being oppressive and dictatorial in nature, and that all income tax returns be totally confidential and inaccessible to all other divisions of government. That all other taxes be abolished, including but not limited to the following: sales tax, gasoline taxes, tobacco and liquor taxes, customs duties and excise taxes, capital gains taxes, corporation taxes, municipal business taxes ... and a number of others. And finally that deficit financing be abolished and the budget of each level of government be balanced each year.

HALT'S EXECUTIVE

President Mike Little is a former RCAF fighter pilot and Air Canada pilot, is 37 years old and resigned from Air Canada in January, 1978, to spend full time promoting Liberty.

Vice President, 38 year old Walter J. Boytinck is a respected Vancouver lawyer, spends much of his time fighting government encroachment into the lives of Canadians. He is in contact with like-minded individuals and groups all over North America.

Director Rick Bolstler joined IBM after receiving a B.Sc. in mathematics from the University of Alberta. At 34 he recently resigned to become a co-founder and director of the Libertarian Foundation.

Director Ed Murphy is a well known open-line broadcaster on CJOR Vancouver. He is author of a Canadian best seller "A Legacy of Spending" and spent six years as a parliamentary correspondent in Ottawa.

Messrs. Little and Bolstler will be the HALT representatives coming to Edmonton this Saturday.

HALT is not a political party, will not become one, and exists outside the political process, and their policy statement claims that politics is a process for the expropriation of one man's property for the use of

'ACOOSTYX' CHALLENGED

I have read the two columns about music in your last issue of the Gazette written by Simon and Shauna. I would like to say a few things about this.

To begin things off, I think that Shauna has opened her mouth a little too soon. For one thing, I know that she doesn't have much knowledge about music. For having not very much knowledge about music, I think that it is very rude for Shauna to criticize Simon. I know Simon and he has very much knowledge about music and he is just trying to teach this to the younger people, like you and me and everybody else.

I think that disco music is very good for dancing. It is fantastic for parties because that is what gets the party going. If you had some hard rock playing, nobody will make an attempt to dance so disco has nothing to be put down for.

I would also dare you, Shauna, to answer all of the questions correctly that Simon has listed in last weeks column.

Ivan Kieser

PREFERS CHARLIE DANIELS

In my opinion, I think Disco Sucks. Frank Zappa does a nice little tune which says it all, it's called Disco Boy.

TO THE EDITOR

Although it's not a Disco type of song, I feel that he hit it right on the money.

The minority of people who do like Disco can have it all, but I suppose that is to your own discretion, if you like it you like it.

In summary, I feel that there should be a place (or maybe two in Alberta) where a person or people can go and listen or dance to Disco music. Also there should be thousands of places where a person can go to and listen to some excellent music such as: Little Feat, Be-Bop Deluxe, Steely Dan, Al Dimeola and Charlie Daniels.

Marvin Bots
Edmonton

DISCO: THE CONTROVERSY CONTINUES

This letter is in response to the disco controversy in the Gazette of May 30, 1979.

Personally, as a practicing drummer familiar with most types of music, I will say the following:

(A) Looking and reading the two comments, Simon's statement seems to be based more on facts.

(B) Where as Shauna Oor is giving her own opinion which tends to be inaccurate, which goes to show the lack of experience.

(C) Myself, if you're going to print debates on Disco and Rock and Roll etc., you should be looking for people that are more tuned into the music business, for a better, sensible debate.

Leonard Brisson

TOP 40 PUT-DOWN

I am not an expert on who plays with who or whether they are Canadian or American or whatever, but I would like to express my thought on this:

In my opinion, Top 40 or Disco, which are relatively similar, are alright to dance to. But I don't enjoy sitting down and listening to it. That's where I'll listen to anything else but Top 40.

In my opinion, if one is to write an article about music one should get the facts straight then add their opinions about it.

WHAT DO YOU KNOW ABOUT OLDS?

A history of Olds, Alberta is planned as a 75th Anniversary project. The town was incorporated in 1905. The book is to cover the period from the beginning of settlement to 1980 and will cover the town and the surrounding community as it relates to the town.

Former residents of the area can have a part in this exciting project by sending along bits of history, anecdotes, human interest stories both humorous and sad, and pictures that tell a story. Pictures will be well cared for and returned. Dates of events and of pictures are very important. An explanatory title should appear on the back of each picture.

Material submitted should be readable but not necessarily typed. It should contain the facts but need not be ready for print, as it will be edited. It may not be possible to use all the material but help will be acknowledged in the book.

Names and addresses of former residents of the area or their descendants are wanted.

Material as well as names and addresses should be sent to: OLDS HISTORY, Box 189, Olds, Alta. T0M 1P0.

Action against Abascus merger

A shareholder-creditor of Imperial Properties Ltd. of Toronto has filed an action in the Ontario Supreme Court to block the proposed merger of Imperial with Abacus Cities Ltd. of Calgary. This is the firm developing the new regional shopping centre in St. Albert in conjunction with the Bay. The Shareholder's action was taken following approval of the merger at a meeting May 25.

Imperial Properties said the application to restrain the issue of articles of amalgamation is scheduled to be heard next week, and they do not believe the action has merit.

Taxpayers revolt

another. No person holding political office will be accepted for membership. HALT will support candidates of any party whose policies support its objectives.

Their Taxpayers Charter states that the taxpayers have lost control over all levels of government, and that governments have shown neither restraint nor commonsense in spending taxpayer's funds. That governments have mortgaged our children's futures and with full knowledge have robbed citizens of their savings through the hidden and fraudulent tax of inflation. That if governments have fewer tax dollars to spend the citizens will have more, and will spend more prudently. That if the taxing power of governments is not limited by law, governments attain dominant and finally absolute control of the lives of the citizens.

Membership in HALT is available for contributions ranging from $6 to $250 and is available from HALT, 909 Thurlow Street, Vancouver, B.C. V6E 1W3.

It took Jarvis and Gann 13 years to get Proposition 13 before the voters, and they passed it overwhelmingly. HALT believes it is time for Canadian taxpayers to revolt - "or will we also say nothing when governments take 70% or 80% of our earnings?"

The group takes the position that if a man has the intelligence to earn a living, he has the intelligence to control how it is spent.

RANDOM FRISKS COULD PROVE COSTLY

By Vicky Knight

It's the International Year of the Child, but somehow this news hasn't filtered through to Edmonton's city hall. Once again, the city administration has blithely ignored the beliefs which the year is supposed to celebrate.

COMMENTARY

First, we had the spectre of Edmonton youngsters being barred from the streets of their hometown after 10 p.m. The curfew campaign led by Ald. Bill Chmiliar was founded on the misguided notion that the words teenager and vandal are synonymous. Well, the curfew caper died the ignoble death it deserved--and it was just as well. It saved the city from the dubious honour of being one of the few jurisdictions in the world to legislate against children during the Year of the Child.

However, barely was the curfew laid to rest and the city found another weapon to use against the teen-age menace and search and seizure is the name of the game. Anywhere in the vicinity of Jasper Avenue, members of the city constabulary can be seen energetically frisking those persons whom they suspect of having drugs or other incriminating material on their person. Strangely enough, it seems that only those under 30 years need be concerned. The police are acting after a rash of complaints from the district's businessmen.

Undoubtedly, the police are in a tricky position. The local merchants are fed up with the invasion of their business district by junkies, traffickers, pimps and hookers, and the merchants have been vocal in their complaints to city hall. After all, the presence of these groups are not conducive to retail trade, and that is regrettable. However, is the short-term profit loss worth the cost of alienating a whole raft of young Edmontonians, and their families? If the merchants look at the long term effects of the solution they have asked for the searches might appear as a less than perfect remedy.

Like it or not, people between the ages of 15-30 spend a pile of money. However, I doubt Jasper Avenue will get any of their future spending if they have to dodge body searches on their shopping expeditions. They will return to the safety of the shopping mall and the downtown merchants will have trouble luring them out again.

And what about the tourist trade? The travelling public doesn't take kindly to cities that extend that kind of welcome. Should it happen to them or to their kids, they will in all likelihood take their business to other cities, where official interest in the citizenry is not so intimate. They will probably tell their friends to do likewise.

Aside from being bad business, this approach to the problem is bad law enforcement. The police suffer from the resulting damage to their image, and the 'dragnet' will once again yield only small fry. While the kids are being locked up, the big fish still prowl the murky depths of the underworld, more or less free from interference. And their profits from drugs and prostitution keep rolling in.

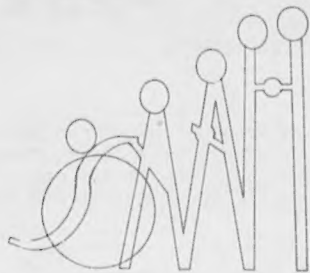

This is a lamentable result from a program that costs so much in terms of younger people, their civil rights, and the attitude with which they regard the law. The only equitable (if unjust) way to carry out this kind of operation is to search everyone who happens to mosey along, regardless of age, sex, race, creed or occupational status. We predict the search would be over the first time one of the pillars of our community found himself spreadeagled against a building or shoeless on the sidewalk.

If the random searches on Edmonton's main street continue, a lot of future citizens are going to acquire antagonistic attitudes toward the law. And that might prove the most expensive consequence of all.

LOGO DESIGN WINNER CHOSEN

Going out for the week? ...Call a housesitter

Judy Blake is not your average 9-5'er. She's not your average businessman either. What she does do is look after your home when you're not home.

Unless you prefer to invite a burglar to take advantage while you're away it's a good idea to at least give the appearance of habitation.

One obvious way is to have a relative or neighbour look after the place. The lawn needs mowing, the garden and flower beds watering, the mail and newspaper must be brought inside and the cat needs his supper. If a friend or relative doesn't happen to be available to look after these little chores don't panic. Help may be only a phone call away.

The idea is not unique but it is relatively new to this area. In the U.S. of A. (where else?) the idea has been in practical use for a few years but it has only surfaced recently here. Judy knows of one other person who operates a housesitting business and that's in Sherwood Park. She also says her father has been looking at getting into the 'live in' business in Ontario.

Judy doesn't intend to live in the home, only visit it periodically throughout the day and week (always at different times in case the house is being watched).

She has been organizing and planning her venture since January and began operation with her first two clients on the Victoria Day weekend. In the interim she worked with the police regarding safeguarding homes, methods she plans to pass along to her clients. She also talked to the Society for the Retired and Semi-retired about an arrangement for help should her business grow to that point. Judy is also bonded and insured, an important qualification you should look for when contracting with someone to look after your home. She also doesn't wear a uniform or drive a marked car; two sure ways of advertising the fact no one is home.

With the number of St. Albert residents who spend time away from home, the housesitting business looks like a sure winner.

Incidentally, the price is $4 per day. Cutting the grass or walking the dog will be charged extra.

May busy for 8th Brownie Pack

May has been a very busy month for Mackenzie District 8th Brownie Pack.

On May 7 a combined meeting with 4th Guide Company was held. Leah Bjalek, Kristy Sellan, Cathy Sellan and Lori Walker received their wings and flew through the Brownie tunnel to Guide-land. Because of the new age grouping next September many other Brownies are eligible to move on. Lori Birdsall, Leanne Gilbert, Susan Lutz, Johanna Read, Katie Redford, Dawn Santrock, Patti Drisdell, Josée Perron and Tracey Topping received suitcases packed with things they had learned in Brownies and walked through the tunnel to Guides.

The following week a gala mother and daughter fancy hat party was held. Brownies and moms arrived with beautifully designed creations. They ranged from cake pans covered with pussy-willows, hard hats covered in tools to a chicken coop complete with chickens and eggs. The judges had a difficult task deciding on hat prizes. Following a chicken dinner a campfire was held. [Editor's Note: The chicken adorning the plate didn't end up on the plate we hope].

The highlight of the evening was a skit performed by moms, Denise Sellan, Donna Read, Maureen Gilbert and Susan Lightfoot looked delightful in their brownie uniforms as they harassed their patient Brown Owl Kim Tomlin. Meanwhile the audience was doubled up with laughter.

The final surprise came a week later when Owls JoAnn Symonds, Carol Hoffman and Eva Kerslake were presented with a silver cup from district commissioner Charlotte Jeffares for winning the Alberta Brownie Singing contest. Brownies from all of Alberta can enter this tape contest. 8th Pack Brownies worked hard at this throughout the year especially with three non musical leaders. The end result was the winning cup which will be passed to each Brownie throughout the coming year.

Hire-A-Student seeking employers

Since the end of the school year is just around the corner, many students are searching for summer employment. Many are anxious to find a job that will continue after the summer on a part-time basis.

To date, the Hire-a-student office has just over 100 students registered. These students range from 13 to 20 years of age, and are eager to find a job. Some would like to work outside, painting, planting, fixing fences, or doing other odd jobs. Many young girls are interested in finding a babysitting job. Students with more qualifications and experience are looking for secretarial or clerical work, while others would like to work in a restaurant, or be salesclerks.

Many are looking for manual labour in construction or field work. Within this wide range there are many different jobs the students are interested in doing. So far, 42 job orders have been filled, but many more are needed.

A window washing crew started work last weekend. They are available on weekends and on some week days after school. If you need your windows washed, call the H.A.S. office, and help will be sent over.

The H.A.S. office is located in Grandin Shoppers Park. If you have any jobs you need help with, call Janet Boddez at 458-3808.

The people at Hire-a-Student are looking forward to hearing from you. Have a young summer and hire-a-student!

MYSTERY MASCOT

The gentleman seen here is to become a familiar figure this summer. Visitors to the Alberta Summer Games will note his presence at various events, where he'll be sitting stoically on the sidelines, cheering on the competitors. Actually, our mascot has a pretty soft job, but there is one drawback. He is as yet anonymous. Creator Linda McPhee has asked At. Albert residents their ideas for a mascot moniker in a "Name the Man" contest. Entry can be made by mailing your suggestion to Box 1000 or bringing it in to the Games Office at the Percy Page Centre. The lucky winner will receive a unique gift: an actual photograph of the mascot's mother! The mascot can be seen at the Bookshelf in the Professional Building.

July's the month for St. Albert new fire engines

St. Albert will be getting two brand new fire engines this July.

One of them is a unit ordered from an out-of-province supplier last summer that will finally be arriving. The second is the result of city council's decision at their May 28 meeting to spend $83,085 on a "Thibault Triple Combination Pumper" from Superior Emergency Equipment of Red Deer, Alberta.

City Manager Bob Byron told council that the city's two fire engines -- one is 15 years old and the other is 20 -- are in "decrepit condition." One is so bad, in fact, that a "loaner" will be supplied by an Alberta company until the new engines arrive in July.

In a letter to Mr. Byron, fire chief George Todd said he favored buying from Superior because both of the other companies who quoted prices were from British Columbia. One of those companies offered a bid that was $5,000 below Superior's bid but Mr. Todd wrote that, "Our recent experience with an out-of-province supplier would indicate that the lowest quote is not necessarily to our advantage." In addition, the company offering the lower bid couldn't guarantee delivery for seven or eight more months -- too long a time to satisfy the city's needs.

Speaking to council, Mr. Byron noted that the city has saved quite a bit of money in buying the two engines. The overdue unit will be brand new, he said, but the city will pay for it at 1978 agreed-upon prices. The second engine will be $15,000 cheaper because a 1978 chassis has been used, he said.

St. Albert Air Cadets In Review

By F/Sgt. Cherbel
Thursday, May 31 cadets viewed two films dealing with flying for part of the evening. The remainder of the evening was taken up with regular classes.

RC(AIR)C offer many opportunities to cadets throughout the summer months. These opportunities are mostly in the form of summer camps and this year #533 Squadron has numerous cadets attending various camps.

There are two camps in Alberta available to cadets. Penhold, located near Red Deer, offers a basic two week course including canoeing, swimming, first aid, drill techniques, and a chance to meet other cadets from all over Canada. Penhold also offers a four to six week course.

Another local camp which some cadets will be attending is Wright where #533 Squadron has often spent a weekend. Camp Wright offers a two-week venture training course including a three-day hike around the lake and some canoeing.

There are also two band camps outside of Alberta available to cadets. One, in Vernon, B.C., is a tri-service camp. It lasts seven weeks and deals basically with three different bands (marching band, concert band, and pipe band) as well as swimming and sports activities. It also allows band members to travel throughout B.C. for parades. #533 Squadron has only one cadet: Janice Crerar (trumpet player) attending Vernon this summer.

Another out-of-province band course available to cadets is offered at Whitehorse. LAC Karen Newstead, who plays drum in #533's band, is the only cadet attending Whitehorse this summer.

As well as having a great time, cadets also get a chance to meet other cadets from all over Canada. These cadets may include some army, and navy cadets as well as air cadets.

On behalf of #533 Squadron, I would like to congratulate LAC Seva Dorrar who has just recently been accepted for an Athletic Scholarship. Good luck with your scholarship this summer and have fun!

#533's band will be performing with the colour party in the St. Albert Rodeo parade on June 16.

Regular band and colour party practices will be held Monday. Members please attend.

Registration to join #533 Squadron will be held in September.

Camp an education in outdoor living

"They arrive with smog in their lungs and a TV for a brain." That's how Rocky Jubinville describes the kids who come from the city to spend a week living in the outdoors.

Along with the smog and TV brains come some incredible excuses of what the kids can and cannot do. "My Mom says I don't have to eat stew." "I don't get up until 9." "I can't cook." Invariably by week's end their all eating stew, rising at the break of dawn, and cooking over open fires like pioneers.

Rocky describes the routing as 'Outward Bound' style geared to a kid's level. Horsemanship, water and gun safety, fishing, canoeing, water skiing, hiking, cooking, archery, challenge and adventure are the order of the day at the "no nonsense" camp located on the shores of Lac La Biche about 120 miles northwest of St. Albert.

Rocky formerly ran the camp at Lake Isle but algae problems in the water prompted him to purchase land at Lac La Biche. Young campers have the choice of living in huts or under canvas. Counsellors (one for every five or six children) come from as far away as England and are all hand-picked by Rocky himself. The first camp (for boys and girls) opens July 2 and registration is limited to 55 per week. Two-thirds of the bookings have already been taken by kids who came last year; probably the best recommendation a camp could have.

"It's kind of a discipline oriented camp," says Rocky. "Everybody pitches in. They get their own firewood, do their own cooking, look after their own equipment and most important, they learn co-operation." He says that an equally important aspect is being able to "live with nature rather than fighting it or wishing it were different. It doesn't help to say 'I wish it wasn't so hot,' or 'I wish it wasn't raining'; you have to learn to live with the conditions nature provides!! The camp permits no radios, TV's or electronic appliances.

Rocky says he's really "tough" with his water safety program. He says 90 percent of drownings take place within a few feet of help because both parties panic or do not know proper procedures. Kids hardly able to swim are soon downproofing for 15 or 20 minutes and good swimmers are at it so long they become bored. "The thing to make them realize," says Rocky, "is that you can be really bouyant when you know how to do it."

Fishing is one of the activities Rocky enjoys observing the most. Kids who have never cleaned a fish before are almost terrified over the prospect. Some are afraid to catch a fish because they don't want to have to clean it yet once they have one on a hook they fall all over themselves in excitement. Back on shore with the catch they're afraid to touch the fish and there's all kinds of "yuks" and "icks" emanating from the young fishermen. Here's where the element of competition seeps in. No boy is going to be outdone by a girl at fish cleaning and its often the girls who start in first. Rocky says that before you know it everyone is cleaning fish like pros without a complaint about the scales or slippery texture.

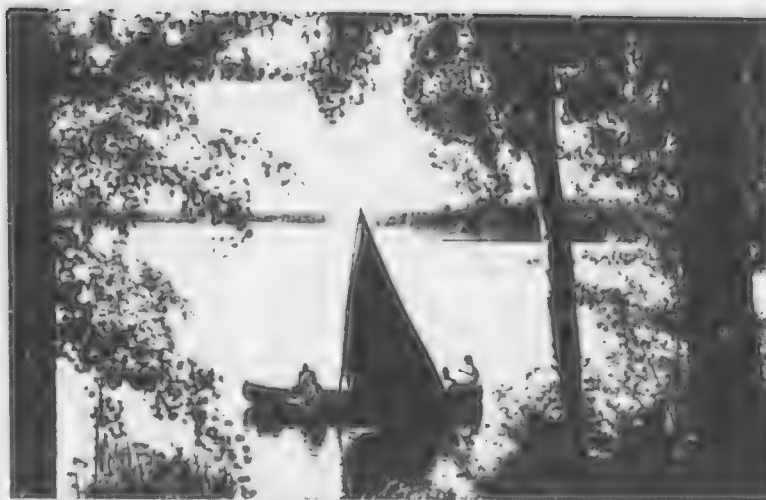

Cleaning fish exemplifies the self-reliance aspect of the camp. Kids are taught to "make do" rather than merely going to the store to purchase whatever they might need. They also learn the fine art of washing dishes and clothes, making beds and all the other day-to-day chores normally assessed to "mum". Rocky says he often receives letters from parents expressing disbelief that "little Johnny" is suddenly making his own bed, picking up his clothes and offering to help with the dishes.

Rocky Jubinville has spent over 23 years in physical education and YMCA youth work and has travelled around the world promoting recreation in the outdoors. He has assisted in many wildlife TV specials and films particularly with his long-time friend Dr. Al Oeming.

He has lectured at universities and colleges across North America and around the Pacific Rim and spent seven years with International Affairs in New Zealand. His ability to work with and motivate youth is highly respected. In the words of Al Oeming "Those who will benefit most from Rocky's approach to recreation are members of the public who desire more from life than sitting in an easy chair; and that's most of us."

Registration forms for Rocky Jubinville's Outdoor Education Camp must be signed by a parent before the registration is accepted. They're available by phoning 489-2037 or writing #305, 9817-156 Street, Edmonton.

ROUGHING IT?

If paddling is too strenuous try sailing. The 'Catamaran,' pictured above, was constructed by lashing two canoes together with poles. The 'mast' sits in a special fitting in one of the canoes and the helmsman steers by using his paddle as a rubber. It's all part of the action at Rocky Jubinville's Outdoor Education Camp.

PRIME TIME FOR LIVING

Aging symposium being held in Calgary

Almost every Canadian province is now considering setting up some form of gerontological institute. The Alberta government has struck a Steering Committee to make recommendations as to the structure, goals, function and location of an institute of gerontology for Alberta. And, for the first time, monies are being made available by the federal government for gerontological research.

A University of Calgary symposium entitled Gerontological Institutes: Form and Function, to be held on-campus June 7-9, will explore various models for gerontological institutes including research, education and service components as well as policy and planning. Organizers hope that the symposium will help inform the community and academia about the major issues involved in the consideration of any gerontological institute.

Under discussion will be 'Institute linkages with the community,' 'multi-function institute models,' Canadian developments in gerontology and the goals and problems of Institutes of Gerontology.

Joseph Durands wed 65 years

On June 14, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Durand will mark a milestone in their lives—their 65th wedding anniversary. The couple is residing at the Youville Home in St. Albert, where an Open House will be held June 14 to honour the couple. The open house will be held from 6:30 to 9 p.m.

Joseph Durand was born in Princeville, Quebec on February 14, 1894, his wife, the former Marie Reine Amanda Cote was born in St. Norbert, Quebec on June 5, 1896. They were married on June 14, 1914 and raised a family of six. Their children are Maurice, Armand, Marie Jeanne, Germaine, Irene and Therese. They have 30 grandchildren and 56 great grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Durand began their journey together on a farm in Princeville, Quebec where they lived for six years until moving to another farm at Beaumont, Alberta. They remained at Beaumont for three years. In 1924 they moved to Edmonton, living at 113th Avenue and 113 Street, which was then Portage Avenue before it became Kingsway Avenue. There, the couple operated Durand's Dairy Natural Milk until 1941, when the municipal airport was built on their farm. The dairy was then moved to St. Albert and in 1945 they purchased a farm west of here.

They moved to Maillandville, B. C. in 1948, and Mr. Durand worked toward getting a pension from the Fraser Mill. Because of an automobile accident, they returned to Edmonton in 1968. They entered the Youville Home in 1971.

Old friends and relatives of the Durands are invited to drop in at the Youville on Thursday, June 14 to enjoy coffee and conversation on the occasion of this important anniversary.

Woman heads two five generation families

Mrs. Mary Huberdeau of rural St. Albert has the honour of being a double great-great grandmother. Mrs. Huberdeau's daughter, Mrs. Ann Sharpe of Surrey, B.C., is a double great-grandmother.

This five-generation family includes Mrs. Mary Huberdeau, great-great grandmother; Mrs. Ann Sharpe, great-grandmother; Mrs. Carol Jones, Vancouver, grandmother; Mrs. Anna Murphy, mother; and the fifth-generation child Candy Dawn Murphy, now 11 months old.

The second five-generation family includes Mrs. Mary Huberdeau, great-great grandmother; Mrs. Ann Sharpe, great-grandmother; Mrs. Irene Thibert, Langley, B.C., grandmother; Mrs. Sherry Dole, mother; Surrey, B.C., and the fifth-generation child Robert Doyle, now nine months old.

A family reunion, in honour of Mrs. Mary Huberdeau, was held in Vancouver in March. Social gatherings were held at Stanley Park and at a social club in Surrey.

New column to appear in Gazette

Beginning next week, the Gazette will carry a column on Parliamentary procedure by local Parliamentarian Catherine Clausen. The column will run on a bi-weekly basis.

CATHERINE CLAUSEN

As more people get involved with committees and meetings at all levels the need for rules or procedure becomes more and more apparent. As Catherine puts it, "No group is too large or too small for some form of procedural rules during meetings, and, when used properly, these rules expedite meetings in an orderly and efficient manner."

Catherine is a Registered Procedural Parliamentarian and a qualified instructor of parliamentary procedure. She currently teaches a class in Edmonton and will be teaching one in St. Albert if interest is shown. The internationally used Robert's Rules of Order (newly revised) will serve as a practical manual of reference.

The Alberta Association of Procedural Parliamentarians was incorporated in 1970. An independent body, it is the first Canadian-founded organization of this nature. Alberta was the founding province.

The Association strives to encourage respect for the law and decorum of deliberative assemblies. Today, according to the Association, practically every person can claim membership in one or more organizations. However, very few persons have adequate knowledge of basic parliamentary procedure to help promote democratic group action. Many persons with good ideas feel handicapped, and will not seek executive positions of office, or serve as chairmen of committees. Of equal importance many do not exercise their privileges as participating members.

We hope that Catherine's column, "What's on the Agenda?" will be of assistance to the many individuals and groups among our reading audience who presently take part or plan to participate in committees or organizations. You will be able to write to her with any questions c/o The Gazette.

Athabasca U asks for deferral

At a recent meeting with the Hon. James Horsman, Minister of Advanced Education and Manpower, Athabasca University asked that further consideration by government about a relocation of Athabasca University be postponed indefinitely.

"Any decision to relocate an educational institution that has developed in Edmonton for nine years must be made very carefully," said University Governing Council Chairman, Ken Chapman.

Athabasca University is a distance learning institution that is facing phenomenal student growth. The University is presently occupied in meeting the increasing educational demands from all over the province and in preparing courses in the new Bachelor of Administration program.

"We simply don't have the time or people now to adequately consider a new location, a building design, feasibility, construction, and service implications involved in such a move," noted Mr. Chapman.

The University is housed in a number of buildings in Northwest Edmonton, and will definitely need more appropriate accommodation in the near future. However, the University does not require the campus or buildings that characterize the traditional university.

The Athabasca University Governing Council has gone on record as being interested in a permanent administrative facility for the University but is concerned that the decision be made in consultation with the University and that any site selected support the continued effective operation and delivery of the unique Athabasca University programs and services.

King committed to community schools

Dave King was committed to the concept of community schools even before he became Alberta's Minister of Education, says the Community Education Association of Alberta.

King recently reaffirmed his belief and support for community schools. Mr. King asked delegates attending a Community Education Association of Alberta (CEAA) seminar, which was exploring the role of community schools in the province, to propose legislative amendments to facilitate a smooth transition from the conventional school setting to "beyond classroom walls," a community school.

Approximately 100 people from various grassroots organizations, provincial agencies and interested parents attended the day-long seminar held in Edmonton.

In addition to the Honorable David King, community school principal Don Campbell of Red Deer addressed the delegates. He stressed that education for the future must involve a partnership of all community components: churches, community centres, businesses and the family unit.

Mr. Campbell agreed wholeheartedly with the Minister, who commented that parent involvement in education is vital. The community "has the right to be part of the decision making process and subsequent implementation," said Mr. King.

The Red Deer principal explained how the G.H. Dawe Community Centre, which has been operational for three years, is oriented to the community by design as well as by philosophy. He told the group that the community education concept is in place in about two dozen communities in the province and, with government support, community schools could take root in many more. Mr. Campbell said he was favorably impressed with the Minister's supportive statements and commitment to community schools.

The CEAA is a relatively new association for individuals and groups interested in community education and community schools. Members live in all parts of the province from Pincher Creek to Fort McMurray.

Criminal justice workshop in Calgary

Some of the world's most prominent scholars of the history of crime and criminal justice in Europe and Canada will attend a workshop at The University of Calgary from July 22 to 27, sponsored by The Calgary Institute for the Humanities.

Entitled Crime and Criminal Justice, the workshop will provide a forum to analyse case studies that reveal insights available from new methodology in the field.

According to Terence Penelhum, director of The Calgary Institute for the Humanities, it will enable Europeans to learn the impact of their studies on Canada, and enable Canadians to perceive the relevance of the European and British background of their criminal justice system.

John Baker from St. Catherine's College, Cambridge, and Chris Levy from U of C will present papers on the evolution of criminal law doctrine on Monday, July 23.

Aspects of crime and criminality will be examined on Tuesday, July 24. Timothy Curtis from Newcastle upon Tyne Polytechnic and John Beattie from the University of Toronto will present papers, and a panel composed of Pieter Spierenburg from Erasmus University in Rotterdam, Henry Cohen from Loyola University of Chicago, Byron Henderson from U of C and Terry Chapman from the University of Alberta will discuss The Measurement of Crime in Europe and North America; Methodological and Philosophical Problems.

Wednesday's sessions will review the criminal law process and administration in Europe and French Canada. Speakers include Alfred Soman, Universite de Paris, Andre Lachance, Universite de Sherbrooke, and Douglas Hay, Memorial University of Newfoundland.

Mr. Justice Morrow will be the featured speaker at a banquet on Wednesday evening. His talk is entitled Adapting Our Justice System to the Cultural Needs of Canada's North.

Thomas Thorner, historical research director with Hu Harries Associated Ltd., Calgary, Neil Watson, research assistant with the Alberta Legal Aid Project, and Rod Macleod from U of A will examine the criminal law process and administration in Canada on Thursday July 26.

The final day of the workshop, Friday, July 27, will deal with punishment and criminal justice. Speakers for this session are Herman Diederiks from the University of Leiden, W. A. Calder from U of A and Simon Verdun-Jones from Simon Fraser University.

A registration fee of $50 includes two receptions, one banquet, admission to all sessions and a published copy of the proceedings.

For registration details, contact Lois Kokoski in the U of C faculty of continuing education conference office, Library Tower 110 or phone 284-5051.

SUBSCRIBERS !!

The distribution of our newspaper is handled in three ways: on newstands, through the mail, and by our team of carriers.

The vast majority of our readers prefer receiving the Gazette from our carriers, and it is their job to ensure that you get the Gazette as early as possible every Wednesday, whatever the weather.

Lately, the most difficult part of the carriers job has been collecting from customers. People, now are more on the go, and therefore more difficult to catch at home.

We shouldn't overlook the problems caused by holidays and moving. It is difficult to remember money owed to a carrier.

For greater convenience to all, we are hoping that our readers will take this opportunity to subscribe to the Gazette on a yearly basis.

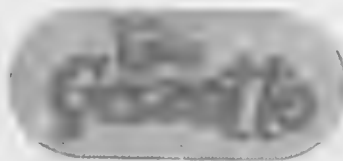

You won't have to worry about having change on hand, or the carrier bothering you at inopportune moments. The carrier will save time working his or her route, therefore affording them more time with their friends, family and personal activities. The carrier will still receive full creditation for the delivery. If you are moving or taking holidays, just give us a call, and the necessary adjustments will be made (subscription extension, transfer, etc.).

If you move away, you can keep up on local news through the mail by having your paper follow you to your new address.

Music of Richard Rodgers celebrated

Remember the music of Richard Rodgers? Tunes like "Love Me," "Bewitched, Bothered and Bewildered," "My Funny Valentine," "The Lady Is A Tramp," "Johnny One Note," "With a Song In My Heart;" tunes that most of us can still remember a lot of the words to. For those of you who do remember, and for those who would enjoy a truly different kind of musical experience, the Edmonton Musical Theatre's upcoming production is sure to fill the bill. The show will run June 13-16 at the Citadel.

The Edmonton Musical Theatre became Edmonton's newest addition to the performing arts scene last year when they presented "An Evening With Gershwin," a production which was acclaimed by the public and critics alike. Dasha Goody, artistic director of the Edmonton Musical Theatre, states that the group was formed to promote and encourage public interest in live musical theatre, and to the many talented young people in our area the opportunity to develop and display, in a professional manner, their own abilities. Tommy Banks, internationally-known musician, composer, conductor and arranger, among many other qualifications, is musical director for the group and Jackie Graceffo, well known teacher and choreographer, theatre and TV performer, is choreographer.

Auditions are held before each show and are open to anyone wishing to display their singing and/or dancing abilities. At this year's auditions some 75 hopefuls turn out but only 42 were chosen to do the upcoming show, an increase of seven performers over last year's Gershwin production.

Like some other forms of live theatre in Edmonton, the Edmonton Musical Theatre is dependent upon patrons and government grants, as well as support from the public, to accomplish all of their goals each season. As well as the goals mentioned earlier, the group hopes to be able to award three scholarships this year to those individuals showing the most promise in their chosen field. Two scholarships were awarded last year, to Jerry LePage and Jim Raycroft, both students of the Fine Arts Faculty at the University of Alberta.

The group has been in rehearsal three nights a week since mid-March and will present the results of their efforts on stage at the Citadel Theatre the evenings of June 13, 14, 15 and 16. Opening night performance is being dedicated to Horst Schmidt, former Minister of Culture for Alberta, in recognition of the invaluable contribution he has made to the advancement of all forms of culture in the province during his tenure as Minister of Culture. Show time is 8:30 p.m. and all seats are reserved. Tickets are available by calling the Citadel box office at 425-1820.

EMT SALUTES GERSHWIN

Alberta singers hit the big time

A U.S. release agreement has been reached by Royalty Records of Canada Ltd., an Alberta based independent, and Ray Lawrence Ltd. of Studio City, California.

Ray Lawrence, who has successfully promoted among others, such artists as Barbara Streisand, Bill Cosby and Chet Atkins, will now be handling three Royalty recording artists, the first of the Royalty family to debut produce in the United States.

The three singles are to be released on June 1, 1979. Jimmy Arthur Ordge's "Story Time & Prayers" from the album "Story Time & Prayers," Royalty Records R-2000-42(CAN), RUS-2000-42 (U.S.).

Advanced authors workshop to be held

Alberta Culture will sponsor an advanced authors workshop for writers of non-fiction, in Calgary, August 9, 10 and 11. The fee for the workshop is $40.00.

"This unique workshop offers selected students a rare opportunity for intensive, highly professional instruction on an individual basis that's bound to make acceptance easier," remarked John Patrick Gilless, director of the Film and Literary Arts.

Instructors for the course are: Paul Grescoe, a veteran magazine journalist, editor of Calgary Magazine and a partner in Pacific West Publications, which has concerns in Vancouver, Calgary, Edmonton and Montreal; and

Audrey Grescoe, formerly an editor for the Toronto Globe and Mail who turned to freelancing for such magazines as Homemaker's, The Canadian and The Financial Post and now works as executive editor of Calgary Magazine.

Students wanting to attend the workshop should be prepared to submit a manuscript of between 1,000 and 3,000 words, and a description of their objectives as a writer.

Only 12-15 students can be accepted for this workshop. Selections will be based upon publication credits, apparent desire to become a professional writer and an evaluation of submitted manuscripts by the instructors. For application, write to Alberta Culture, Film and Literary Arts, 12th Floor, CN Tower, Edmonton, T5J 0K5 or call 427-2554.

Heritage learning material at Library

by Connie Anderson
"To know, to understand, to participate. The Canadian heritage is your heritage."

The Alberta heritage learning resources is a project of Alberta education, funded by the Alberta savings trust fund for senior students and adults. The following are a few of the books that you will find in the donation made recently to the library by the Alberta Heritage Savings Trust Fund.

A History of Alberta by J. G. MacGregor gives us an overall history of Alberta from the primitive hunter to the abounding material riches of today. Alberta: the Pioneer Years, by Harold Fryer has attempted to shed new life on many overlooked heroes and heroines of Alberta's past.

The Little White School House by John C. Charyk, has given us a glimpse of what country schools were like. The Canada of today owes much to the one-room schools of yesterday. Only an educated democracy can be a real democracy. It was what transpired in these country schools during the past three quarters of a century that was largely instrumental in consummating this precious way of life for Canadians.

a Harvest Yet to Reap: a history of Prairie Women, by Linda Rasmussen, is an overview of the history of white women on the Canadian prairies in the early years of agricultural settlement.

The Roar of the Twenties, by James H. Gray, is much more a memoir than a formal history of the 1920s on the western Canadian prairies. This is a social rather than a political history.

Crowfoot: chief of the Blackfeet, by Hugh A. Dempsey, is a biography of a great Indian leader of the Canadian-American West. This biographical study is also a survey of the turbulent period on the northern plains in the decades from 1860-1890. While many Indian leaders called for war to resist the white man's greed, injustice, and callousness, Crowfoot sought cooperation and peace.

Fillet of Sole Roma

- 2 pkgs. (1 lb. ea.) frozen North Atlantic sole or flounder fillets
 1/4 cup chopped onion
 1 cucumber, peeled, seeded, sliced
 1 cup seedless grapes (optional)
 1 lemon, sliced
 1 tomato, cut in wedges
 1/4 cup white wine
 2 tablespoons tomato paste
 1 teaspoon Italian dressing
 1 teaspoon sugar
 1 teaspoon salt
 1/4 teaspoon hot pepper sauce
 1/4 teaspoon pepper

Allow fish to stand at room temperature 20 minutes unwrapped. Cut each semi-frozen block into 3 portions. Line a shallow baking pan with foil, leaving enough to fold over top. Place fish in foil; combine remaining ingredients and spoon over fish. Wrap tightly. Bake in 450 degree oven 30 minutes. (Or place foil package in boiling water and cook 25 minutes, turning package once). Fish is ready to serve when it becomes opaque and flakes easily when tested with a fork. Do not overcook. Serves six.

Television commercials are too often maligned. A lot of good can be derived from watching them. For instance, if you pay close attention you can learn how to recognize a friend. A friend is one who tells you things you should know.

Here are some examples:

You come up behind someone you know, place your hands over his eyes and coyly whisper, "guess who?" into his ear. He turns, grimaces horribly into your face and gasps, "ohhh, onions and garlic!"

Forget the urge to fix his nose so that he may never be offended again. THIS is a pal.

You can be dining in your favorite restaurant. The waitress, while serving your pheasant, peers down your neck and shrieks, "ring around the collar!" Resist the temptation to force feed her the bird, platter and all. She is your friend.

If you should enter your living room to find your guest smearing your antique table with something gooey to prove that your brand of polish is ineffective, relax. Using her face as a floor polisher would serve no useful purpose. Besides, this is a buddy.

Should "snoopy sniffer" pay a visit to poke her nose into your garbage pail, then announce to the neighborhood that your kitchen is not fresh, ignore your first impulse, it could get you five to twenty in the federal pen.

When a stranger in the park berates you for using the wrong diapers on your baby, refrain from telling her where to wear the diapers. She is only concerned by your lack of care for the child. This is understandable in a friend.

If your manicurist looks at your hands and pales in horror, accept this as a gesture of her feeling for you.

When your wife pretends to faint as you remove your shoes, be amused. This is only her idea of a cute ploy to show her love for you.

When in a tight clinch with your fiancé and instead of sweet nothings he casually mentions that your deodorant is not what it could be, don't over react and fling the ring in his face. This is a man to hang onto.

If your neighbor holds you and your spotty glasses up to public ridicule, this is the sign of a close comrade.

If you are ever in the supermarket and a man wants to know if your husband prefers stuffing or potatoes, give him a low blow and leave. This fellow only wants to prove that whatever answer you give will be denied by your husband in front of millions of people. This is no friend.

Stuttering: A look at the facts

Sturgeon Health Unit

The dictionary and the public would describe stuttering as "hesitating or stumbling in uttering words." Stutterers do not usually have discernible physical or mental abnormalities; are likely to experience fears or anxieties in relation to their speaking; are aware that their way of talking is considered unusual, and probably show signs of struggle in their attempts to produce trouble-free speech.

WHAT CAUSES STUTTERING?

Authorities do not agree on one specific cause of stuttering. But, generally, stuttering appears to be related closely to difficulties or stresses in interpersonal relationships.

CAN STUTTERING BE AVOIDED?

With our present knowledge of the disorder, we can act in ways that will do much to prevent stuttering. But we cannot state with absolute certainty that most stuttering can be avoided. If we can assume a favorable climate of mental health, affectionate parent-child relationships, and parental understanding of how fluent speech can be encouraged, the chances of stuttering developing are very slim. Indeed. However, we know of no crystal-clear way in which stuttering can be prevented. Even if all the proper assistance is given, the possibility still exists that some stuttering behavior could develop. In such cases, consultation with a qualified professional person is absolutely necessary.

PREVENTING STUTTERING?

A great deal can be done. Even from the infant's first year of life in this talkative world, the seeds of fluent speech can be sown. If the parents can accomplish the following goals, they will have gone far toward insuring speech fluency in their child:

- 1) Become as sensitive as possible to the infant's many ways of communicating with us - verbally and non-verbally;
- 2) Tune in more to the feelings being expressed, rather than to the fact or intellectual content spoken - how one speaks is very often more significant than what one speaks;

3) Learn what it takes for normal speech to develop - learn the ways of giving a helping hand, and make definite efforts to guide your child's speech development;

4) Provide good models of speaking for your child - you are his first and most important teacher;

5) Learn how to listen and how not to listen - yes, it takes some doing to know how to listen well;

6) Make your expectations concerning your child's speech and other behavior reasonable - try not to expect too much too soon;

7) Make certain there are plenty of opportunities for feelings to get out into the open - especially the distasteful feelings - not only your child's, but your own as well - then work at figuring out why they built up and what you can do to improve the situation;

8) Encourage speech spontaneity in your child by strengthening his self-confidence and his desire to share his world with you - as you share yours with him;

9) Be a good conversational partner for your child - too often our conversational traffic-patterns are one-way streets - or dead ends;

10) Keep family relationships as harmonious as possible - especially those between husband and wife for they set the pace and provide the key to successful speech growth.

THE ONSET OF STUTTERING

It is vitally important that parents recognize the difference between stuttering and the normal hesitations which all children show occasionally even though practical steps to be taken are very much the same in both instances. The following kinds of behavior deserve a calm concern; it should be noted that these behaviors may happen suddenly or develop gradually:

1) The child begins to show marked and obvious speech hesitations;

2) He begins to avoid verbal contacts or becomes excessively shy about speaking in certain situations which he had formerly entered eagerly. The same holds true when this reluctance to speak involves a certain person;

3) He begins to speak with effort and strain and is clearly struggling to express things which previously he had said easily;

4) Volleys of repetition of syllables or sounds, or the drawing out of sounds, begin to reappear more often.

Through appropriate methods, such as those described above and used by an understanding parent, such behaviors can be modified and the stuttering may fade away. This has happened many times.

WHAT CAN BE DONE?

[Try to avoid showing the struggling child, by facial expressions, by gestures, by remarks, your indication of concern, impatience or irritability. An abundance of patience, tolerance and deep genuine interest in what the child wants to say will serve as encouragement. Try not to interrupt him or to plead with him. Do not ask him to repeat what he seemed unable to say a moment before. And do not ask him to just talk without stuttering.

Children seem to resent very much their parents guessing what they are trying to say. They do not like having words put into their mouths. When parents do this, the child often feels that the parent is not paying enough attention to what is important to the child. He feels shut out. When he is not understood because of his halting speech, a gesture of affection will reassure the child that no anxiety or anger exists.

You may ask yourself if there is something in family conversations which may be sparking the speech troubles. A new baby, too many adults with their fingers in the child's mind, new surroundings, family squabbles - all of these can affect the child's inner security and bring about hesitant speech.

Work abroad this summer!

The Association of Student Councils (A.O.S.C.) and the National Union of Students (N.U.S.) have announced the development of a program to assist Canadian students over 18 years of age in spending a "working holiday" in Britain. Under this Student Work Abroad program (SWAP) the student will participate in a unique cultural and travel experience by working in temporary positions throughout the United Kingdom.

"Participants will be working in various jobs in clerical and service establishments," said association spokesperson Cindy Fowler. "All jobs are of a temporary or part time nature. The exact position and location will be determined at an interview in London shortly after arrival."

Jobs pay between 43 and 63 pounds (British) ($100 - $150) per week depending on the nature of the work and the proximity to London. Positions are available in various locations throughout Britain including Portsmouth, Birmingham, Liverpool, Edinburgh, Glasgow and York. Accommodation while working is provided at a charge of about 10 pounds per week.

Fowler said the purpose of the program is to enable young Canadians entering Britain or Europe on an extended holiday to offset the rising costs of travel by engaging in some type of temporary employment incidental to their holiday. It may be the only chance students have to combine work and travel experience.

Application for the SWAP program may be picked up at campus placement centres or at AOSC, Box 171, Student Union Building, University of Alberta, Alberta, Edmonton (402) 439-6592.

St. Albert High Reports

By Angele Tellier

Since the previous article was written, the students of St. Albert High School were caught up with the preparations of the graduation. All pandemonium has since ceased because the senior class celebrated its graduation on Friday, May 25.

It would take forever to thank all those who helped make grad as successful as it was so I'll try to make it as brief as possible. Hopefully, I won't forget anyone.

I'll begin with the mass, that started out the commencement exercises, held at the Roman Catholic Church at 3:30 p.m. The efforts of the following groups are sincerely appreciated!! Thank you musicians, singers, ushers and altar boys. I musn't forget the celebrant Father J. Joly and all those who were involved in performing the mass itself. It was beautiful and well done.

The banquet was held at the Edmonton Inn beginning at 6 p.m. in the Crystal Ballroom. The master of ceremonies was James Fowler and the class historians were Jeff Mattern and Kathy Collins. Thank you all. You did splendidly. The "Grad of the Year" award was presented and our grad of the year for 1979 is Joanne Gagnon. Congratulations Joanne.

The dance was also held at the Edmonton Inn, at 8:30 p.m. The band was "Kingspins" and the dance was enjoyable. All in all the grad ceremonies went well and will be remembered by all the graduating class of 1979. The school will seem empty next year without those familiar faces. They'll be sadly missed for who they were. They haven't left us yet but good luck to all of them as they begin their journey of independence. Until next time.

Hideout Column

We'll, we've finally got something to write about. "Surprised?" There will be a Teen Centre Rodeo weekend dance on Friday, June 15 from 8 to 12 p.m. The cost will be $1.50 members but, if you forget your cards you will be charged non-member price, which will be $2.50. "Why so expensive?" you ask. Well, because we are featuring "Morning Glory," a very good group who have got it all together and can play an excellent variety of music. So, we'll see you all there a week from Friday.

Accounts Receivable

Person required for collection of accounts receivable. # Marriage enrichment seminar to be held

All over the country marriages are falling apart and heading for divorce. All too often marriage partners allow their love for one another to grow cold. Why does it happen? What can be done to prevent it?

You can discover some answers to your problems by attending a marriage enrichment seminar this coming weekend. James and Marie Watt of Arcadia, California will be speaking at People Church (112 Ave., and 101 Street.), on a whole range of marital matters.

The seminar includes five sessions, the first of which begins on Friday June 8 at 7:45. On Saturday three sessions are planned for 10:00 a.m., 2:00 p.m., and 7:30 p.m. This will be followed by a final wrap up on Sunday morning at 11 a.m. Babysitting services and nursery facilities are available for all sessions. The registration fee of $5.00 per person will be used to provide a noon meal on Saturday.

Club to focus on optical fashions

Eyeglasses used to carry a certain stigma for their wearer, but all that has changed. They are now one of the hottest fashion accessories going. The Christian Women's Club of St. Albert will be hearing all about glasses and choosing a frame when Marion Reinhold of St. Albert Optical makes a presentation at the club's next meeting. The meeting is scheduled for Thursday, June 14 at the St. Albert Inn from 9:30 - 11 a.m.

As usual the club will hear an inspirational speaker and a musical presentation in addition to the featured address. This week, Ardrossan homemaker Janet Barrie will share her experiences.

Peter O'Donnell, guitarist, soloist and composer will provide a musical program.

Reservations are necessary, and cancellations essential. Anyone who has not been contacted by June 7 please call Shirley Swanson 459-8994 or Clarise Plett 458-7389. A nursery service is available at St. Albert United Church, 268 St. Albert Road at a cost of $1.50 per mother.

REGISTERED NURSES:

- OPERATING/RECOVERY ROOM
- MEDICINE/I.C.U.

Full-time positions are available for R.N.'s with recent experience in the above areas. Apply to:

Mrs. P. M. Fleck
Surgeon General Hospital

Catholics to use school for Mass

Catholic School Board trustees have granted the request of the St. Albert Parish to use the V.J. Maloney lunch room for Sunday Mass.

The First Baptist Church which presently conducts services at the school will move to St. Albert High in the fall to accommodate the Parish's request. (Pastor Heath will now be able to walk to work Sundays).

The Parish made the request with the intent to encourage the establishment of another Parish to the east of the highway. Holding a regular mass at V.J. Maloney will hopefully create the necessary sense of community for a Parish.

In 1978 the Board passed a resolution which supported the concept of the St. Albert Parish constructing chapels adjacent to or attached to St. Albert School District #3 facilities. It also supports the accommodation of the Parish in present district facilities and the concept of joint District-Parish planning for chapels when new schools are constructed.

Bid for second industrial park in Legal fails -- for now

Legal just doesn't have enough development to support two industrial parks.

That was the conclusion of the MD Council in rejecting an application last Thursday to reclassify 67 acres of land from agricultural to light industrial use.

If the land reclassification bid had been successful, council would've paved the way for a second light industrial park in Legal -- this one about one mile west of the village.

One Edmonton developer, Forest Glenn (Dixie) Limited, has already committed itself to a 40-acre park near Legal and the village is arranging to annex the necessary land right now.

"There isn't that much demand for industrial land up there," Councillor Clayton Crozier told other members at the meeting, "and it would be premature to put two industrial parks in competition." He added that the land the second park would occupy is good agricultural land and shouldn't be wasted.

Councillor Walter Van de Walle said the second proposed park should be favored because it'll be nearer to railroad tracks. Also, he said, both industrial parks will be taking up farmland so in that respect there's very little difference between the two proposals.

That may be true, Mr. Crozier said, but "demonstrating a need for this industrial reclassification is the point. There is not a need for two industrial parks in that area and therefore it's premature no matter what kind of land it's on."

In rejecting the bid for a second industrial park, the councillors were acting on a request from the Village of Legal itself. Legal's mayor, Marcel Dube, explained in a later interview that the village had originally favored having a second industrial park.

However, he said, the Edmonton Regional Planning Commission told them that there wasn't enough light industrial activity in the area to support two parks.

Therefore, Mr. Dube said, the village council had asked the MD council to reject the application for land reclassification. He said that speaking only for himself, "anything they (developers) can build even near the town is bound to rub off on the town. We can always use the business."

The second proposed industrial park already has "six or seven" prospective

Sewer line problems at Cardiff echoes

Sewage lines are for sewage. They're not supposed to be full of cement.

So when you find a three-inch by four-inch by two-foot piece of concrete inside your sewer line, you know somebody made a mistake somewhere.

That's just the kind of mistakes that the MD Council was shown at last Thursday's council meeting in an off-site inspection of the sewer lines in Cardiff ECHOES.

Looking at samples of pipe and underground video tape film of the one-year-old sewer line, the councillors saw gaskets that were falling off, cracked and broken connections, joints slipping apart and manually cut connecting holes that looked like they were done with a hammer or blow torch rather than a saw.

The man in charge of filming the interior of the pipe, Kelly Heather from Underground Camera Surveys Limited, said "this is the worst job I've ever seen as far as plastic pipe and as far as quality of workmanship is concerned."

Mr. Kelley's company specializes in inspecting pipelines after they've been buried. A small video tape camera is placed inside the pipe from some point of access and is pulled along, filming the condition of the pipe as it goes.

Mr. Kelly said that except for finding several large pieces of concrete and plaster in the main sewer lines -- for which he had "no idea of how that stuff got in there" -- the biggest problems were in the service lines running to each house.

The connecting joints were continually coming apart. Holes cut into the main line to fit the service pipe were repeatedly too small or too large. The results, said the MD's Utility Officer, Rick Thorne, is that sewage runs out of the gaps between the joints.

Two killed north of Namao

A head-on collision has claimed the lives of two Edmonton residents in a two vehicle mishap on May 27.

Killed instantly were the occupants of the northbound vehicle, Albert Lachine, 54, and a passenger, Susan Stetic, 46.

Three occupants in the southbound vehicle were all seriously injured and are presently still in hospital.

The accident occurred about 9:20 a.m. seven miles north of Namao (one mile north of secondary highway 642).

No decision made on Cardiff services

Development Officer Gary Brownlee told the Gazette Monday that no decision has been made on how the provision of water, low-pressure sewer and roadways services will be financed for the Cardiff area which has recently come under a new replat plan.

There will be some cash requirement from residents and some portion of the costs covered under a debenture, he said, adding that the M.D. Council is also looking into possible assistance under the Provincial grants structure.

However at an open meeting six or seven weeks ago Mr. Brownlee told residents that they would

Fears of drunkenness kill commercial development plan

The simple country life lined up against the evils of drink at last week's MD council meeting.

And the birds and bees won out over liquor and song.

Daelore Developments Ltd., came before council requesting that their Highway 15 property be reclassified from agricultural to highway commercial. Their plan: to build a hotel, restaurant and drinking lounge combination.

Daelore Developments Ltd., representative, J. F. Samborsky, admitted that the bar and dance floor were essential to their plans.

Without them, he said, "we just can't make a go of it financially."

Speaking for the residents' point of view Duane Watrin said he and his neighbors had moved out to the highway to get away from the city life with its drinking and brawling.

Mr. Watrin said "we all enjoy a drink now and then, that's true," but too often he's had to open his door to drunken drivers with their cars in the ditch, asking him for the use of his phone.

Mr. Watrin said he realized that "progress is progress" but "if we want to develop then let's at least be selective." Also, he said, if people want to go drinking then bars in Fort Saskatchewan or further south on highway 15 can serve them. "There are just too many losers in beer parlours," he said, "and we don't need them here."

Mr. Samborsky argued that the proposed drinking lounge would only seat 125 and in any case, the place would be designed to serve overnight guests more than men on their way home from work.

After councillors listened to a letter and petition opposing the proposed $2 million development, and had raised other questions about traffic and access, they voted to reject it.

Councillor Walter Jerram said it would've been wrong to vote for land reclassification. "The people moved out there to get away from the city. It would be unfair to take the city to them."

Councillor Clayton Crozier added that the project might be attractive after a few more years of development in the area but "I think it's not a necessary facility right now. It's only going to tempt workers to stop there."

Think small

Solidarity forever!

Remember you read it here first, folks. Careful analysis of Canadian historical statistics has just proven that the longest labour strike in this country has been staged by employees of the Department of National Revenue (more recently known, with affection, as Revenue Canada).

Records show that workers at D.N.R. have beligerently remained on the job every day since Confederation. With their bitter strike against the Canadian public still in force after an astonishing 111 years, this militant band of workers has vowed to stay on the job until the public capitulates and meets their demands for better wages. "We've proven that endurance is on our side," a spokesman for the D.N.R. workers stated defiantly. "Canadians can't hold out forever against our determined solidarity."

The trouble with strikes in the public sector, the way we see it, is that they aren't universal. For reasons which remain beyond our comprehension, it's always the same worker groups that hit the pavement: the postal workers, Air Canada, the postal workers, transit drivers, the postal workers, garbage men, the postal workers, and so on (not to overlook, of course, the postal workers).

Where are the public service strikes when we really need them? For instance, there is a small but powerful cadre of computer technicians employed by Statistics Canada. Each of those technicians mans a computer that spews out one senseless questionnaire after another, each questionnaire legally obliging hundreds of thousands of managers to take time from profitable work and provide answers on important matters like the number of paper cup dispensers in the lavatories. Where's the militancy in this union?

Another group of federal employees presides over capital spending. Refitting the Bonaventure, for example. Or importing computers from the United States for Loto Canada, thereby putting the Canadian computer manufacturers in their rightful lowly place. Those workers never strike. Damn.

There's no evidence of administrators in the bilingualism program walking off the job for so much as half an hour. Has anyone proof that parking control officers - the characters who hand out parking tickets - know the lyrics to "Solidarity Forever"? And what's wrong with the Senate?

(A good question, that last one).

John Bulloch, President of the 51,000-member Canadian Federation of Independent Business, was asked to comment on the Federation's stand when it comes to public sector strikes. "Encouraging strikes by Revenue Canada is a high priority item in Federation policy," Bulloch replied smoothly without missing a beat.

The trouble with the government is apparent in this attitude towards strikes. Unfamiliar with success, the government never expands the good elements of public policy far enough. We want more civil service strikes - and we want them now!

"Think small" is an editorial message from the Canadian Federation of Independent Business.

Frankincense useful

Frankincense, a gum resin, had a variety of uses in antiquity, says the National Geographic Society. In ancient times on the Arabian Peninsula it was used in certain Jewish and pagan rituals, for embalming, as an antidote to poisons, and to stop hemorrhaging.

Cardiff sewer line problems

The developer responsible for the sewer line installation, Ken Richardson, is already in the process of digging up and repairing faulty sections of pipe that have been inspected. According to conditions of the development agreement, he will pay the costs of correcting the job.

The MD's Development Officer, Gary Brownlee, said the man who was in charge of inspecting the sewers when they were first installed is now "long gone."

John Podmore of Podmore Engineering -- the consulting firm in charge of a full inspection of Cardiff Echoes' sewer lines -- told the councillors that "this is just straight inexperience on the part of whoever installed the pipe." Mr. Richardson, he said, had employed young, untried high school students to do the job.

Mr. Podmore added that in sewage and water construction in Alberta "there doesn't have to be one single qualified person on the job. They can be totally school kids." He said he had been "bugging the provincial government to do something for quite a while," but so far there have been no regulations applied.

One result may be an MD policy to "camera inspect" all water and sewage lines that are constructed in the future. Mr. Heather said that at a cost of about 38 cents a foot, with usually about 10 to 15 percent of a sewer line job actually being filmed, his company charges about $2,200 for an average inspection job. "The cost of even one dig-up is more than that," Mr. Podmore said. "It's worth it."

Gary Brownlee, MD Development Office, says that although no resolution to the effect was passed, there was a "general consensus" that the method of inspection was a good one. He said that mandatory video inspection of sewer line installations would probably be entered into the MD's Land Use Bylaw. The Land Use Bylaw will be put together following the MD's General Plan expected by the fall of this year.

Then, Mr. Thorne said, large air caverns develop under the pipe after the escaping water washes the dirt away. The pipe then has much greater pressure pushing it downwards and breaks are almost inevitable.

Mr. Thorne said only a small portion of the Cardiff Echoes project was inspected with the underground camera, but "I would suggest the whole job is poor workmanship."

have to come up with $6,000 "cash on the nail." Since that time rumour has it that the services charge per lot created under the replat could be $8,000 per lot. Some residents with extra lots are concerned that they will have to come up with as much as $30,000, and carry that burden until and if they can sell part of their property.

Some residents are fully satisfied with the field systems and trucked-in water arrangements that they have now. Others feel that a "low-pressure sewer system is little if any improvement over the field systems." Others would like to get the services in, but cannot understand why they shouldn't be financed under a municipal debenture, to spread the costs over a number of years.

A number of residents have expressed concern that if the servicing is done by a cash levy, and a property owner is unable to come up with the cash, then the M.D. could be in a legal position to put a lien on their land.

A major complaint is that there is conflicting information coming from the M.D. office and the Reeve, and they cannot determine exactly what the situation is.

With the announcement this week that no decision has been made, residents will have further opportunity to make their wishes known, particularly as to debenture financing, better quality sewer services and the matter of the municipality paying for upgrading the Cardiff Road, rather than the residents.

Bid for Legal Park

tenants, according to a representative for the developer. Lou Prefontaine from Forquith Holdings said about 70 percent of their proposed development has already been spoken for by interested tenants.

Upon learning that Forquith's attempt to reclassify the land had failed, Mr. Prefontaine said the company would probably try getting the property reclassified as heavy industrial. That way, he said, the two industrial parks wouldn't be competing for the same tenants. All six of his prospective tenants, he added, are of a heavy industrial nature -- most of them in association with the oil industry.

Mr. Dube said he approves of reclassifying the land as heavy industrial as long as the village is given some assurance that there'll be no competition for tenants between the two parks. "We'll have to iron it out again," he said, "but I don't think it would hurt the town."

Lehman Walker from the Edmonton Regional Planning Commission reacted to Mr. Dube's comments by saying he doesn't see "any problems with changing the property to heavy industrial."

Country Kids Go City

By Dianne Hunt

With all of the modern technology available for the education of children, there are still some pretty basic things that are overlooked. Rural life for instance. For most kids "Old MacDonald" is the only farmer they are familiar with and many could be excused for thinking a cow is a one litre jug purchased at a corner store.

A special International Year of the Child program is working to change some of this. "Farmer For A Day," a program sponsored by the Home Economics and 4H Divisions of the Edmonton area, is designed to involve children in a farming experience that would give them a better understanding of both rural life on the farm, as well as the role of agriculture as a primary industry of Alberta.

City children ages 9 to 12 will be involved in an overnight farm experience. Children will be picked up by bus at MacDonald's in St. Albert and transported to a rural location where they will be met by their 4H host family. The children will stay overnight with the family and will then be returned to the same location to catch the bus at 1:30 p.m. the following day. The days that city children will be going to M.D. of Sturgeon farms are July 3, 4 or July 17, 18. (A St. Albert stop will only be made on the earlier trip).

Once on the farm the children will be involved in regular farm activities. They will be given a tour of the farm that will point out the various types of farming the family is involved in and as well, identify those areas of the farm where they are not allowed to go for reasons of safety. During the rest of the stay the children will be assigned to normal farm chores such as gardening, picking rocks, cleaning barns and pens, gathering eggs and feeding chickens.

Another part of the program will involve children who are already familiar with country living, because they live on a farm. These children will, like their counterparts, enjoy a day in another type of environment. On July 18 and 25, children from the Morinville district will board school buses and head for the city. There they will tour several agricultural plants, Heritage Foods, Honey Co-op and MacDonald's Consolidated. Afterwards they will have a picnic lunch in Hawrelak park and enjoy a variety of games. There will also be an opportunity to tour the Kinsmen Centre and participate in a choice between hiking or swimming. As well, the children will walk along the Capital City trails to the Muttart Conservatory and tour the greenhouse pyramids, courtesy of Edmonton City Parks and Recreation.

Registration deadline for the program is June 15. For more information contact Pat Doerksen, District Home Economist, Alberta Agriculture (Morinville). Phone 939-4351.

TO THE EDITOR

Youngster from Oakhill Boy's Ranch offers insights

The following letter arrived at the Gazette offices about a week ago. The writer is a resident at the Oakhill Boys' Ranch, a school for "problem" children. The young man's insights into his past, his directness and his honesty, impressed us a great deal. So much so, in fact, that we've published his letter in its complete and entire form. We hope our readers can learn something from it.

Ever since I was 10 years old somehow I stole money and food and things. I always got caught and yelled at. I would stop doing it for a while and then start again. It would be the same story time after time.

All through school I seemed to get into fights with my friends so I got 20 straps, 10 on each hand. I com from a family of 11 brothers and three sisters. I am the 12th boy in my family. I am 13 years old.

I talked to my social worker and my mom, but that did not help. I came to Oakhill on my own. Oakhill is a place for young delinquents. I wish parents could help to prevent crime by making sure their children go straight.

I think Oakhill is better than D.T., Westfield or Y.D.C. Just think, when I get out of here I'm going to be good. I've got 10 brothers in prison and one sister, maybe, but I don't know where. Most kids will say "Boy, has he got problems." Well to tell you the truth, everyone has problems. I believe there are more kids in jail or institutions than there are adults from 17 to 36 or so in prison.

I would get the government or a group of people to pitch in money for a big farm with school houses, and the kids could have jobs on the farm, and made to have responsibilities. They can study subjects they like. I would not have teachers give sex lessons because they corrupt the mind, and cause violence, for example rape.

Oakhill is a beautiful place, lots of people here. You can ride horses and have fun. You get to go places lots of times. The oldest one here is 15 years old. Now and then I get homesick.

After I had been here a few days, all the boys wanted to fight me. The best thing to do when you come here is just act cool and don't act tough. Because I don't like fighting.

Everyone should try to have a goal set ahead of them. They should get their grade 12 and try to get a decent job so they don't need to steal.

Swine rop home test

The federal-provincial program for swine Record of Performance testing is paying off for Canadian swine breeders.

The program's success is reflected in the improved performance of Canadian breeding stock. On average, the number of days to market weight has dropped from 172 in 1966 to 150 in 1976. As well, the hogs require much less feed per pound of grain and are far leaner than a decade ago.

In 1977, about 46,000 boars and gilts were tested under Record of Performance programs in Canada.

Part-time farming in Nova Scotia

An Agriculture Canada study in Nova Scotia has found that about one-quarter of the farmers in that province have full-time jobs off the farm.

Most part-time farmers surveyed said low returns were a major problem in their farming operations.

Many also said they could not find enough time for farm work because of their off-farm jobs.

They said evening or weekend short courses in agriculture would help. They also wanted access to the favorable credit terms available to full-time farmers.

Wheat board announces quota termination dates

The Canadian Wheat Board has announced termination dates for several wheat and barley quotas. At the same time, the Board also said it would not be issuing deferred delivery permits on Board grain this year at July 31.

The quotas to be terminated and the effective dates are as follows:

Barley "A" and "B" - July 6, 1979.

Durum wheat "A" - July 6, 1979.

Hard Red Spring Wheat "A" - July 13, 1979.

Red Winter Wheat "A" - July 13, 1979.

Soft White Spring Wheat "A" and "B" - July 13, 1979.

This followed the announcement that the "B" quota for Extra No. 1 and No. 1 C.W. grades of Hard Red Spring Wheat would terminate on June 29, 1979.

The Wheat Board said its decision not to issue deferred delivery permits this crop year was made because of the problems with last year's program. "The extra deliveries contributed significantly to elevator congestion early in the 1978-79 crop year. This meant producer deliveries that should have been coming in at the start of the 1978-79 crop year had to be held back until August 21 so rail shipments from country elevators could make additional space available," the Wheat Board said.

by Margaret Yacyshen FIRST MORINVILLE CUB PACK

Pre-registration is now being taken for any boys 8 - 10 years of age who wish to become members of the Morinville cub pack. The program will run from September 1, 1979 to June 30, 1980.

Anyone interested is asked to call Ken at 939-3258, Dave at 939-3384 or Shirley at 939-4123 as soon as possible. Parents are also needed as leaders or helpers.

The cubs registration fee of $20 will be collected in September.

There will be a parent meeting with the cub pack in the International Building on Monday, June 11 at 8:30 p.m. As it will be "Bring a Friend night", each cub is invited to bring someone along.

TINY TOTS

At a general meeting held on May 29 the Tiny Tots organization held its registration night for the fall term. A full quota of sixty-four children were registered. These will be divided into two classes, each of three year olds and four year olds, sixteen children per class.

A waiting list has been started and any parents who wish to add their child's name to the list may do so by contacting Nancy Van Brabant at 939-4038.

Election of an executive for the 1979 - 80 term also took place at the general meeting. The officers are: President, Nancy Van Brabant; Secretary, Betty Christianson; Treasurer, Pauline Wiley; Recreation Planner, Luey Roy; and Supplies Buyer, Vivian Allen. Roster mothers will be assigned in the fall. Tiny Tot classes will again be taught under the direction of Mrs. June McPherson.

FARMER FOR A DAY

In conjunction with International Year of the Child, the Home Ec. and 4-H Division of Alberta Agriculture is offering a program for children 9-12 years of age.

The country children will go into the city for one day, either July 18 or 25, and take part in some city recreational activities such as hiking or swimming. They will also tour an agricultural processing plant for eg. dairy or honey co-op.

The city children will go out to the country to stay overnight on a farm and be hosted by a 4-H family.

Town children have the option of going into the city or onto the farm.

Registration forms may be obtained from the Alberta Agriculture office in the M. D. Building or at the schools. The fee is $3.50 and includes a T-shirt and trip diary book. The deadline for registration is June 15.

More information may be obtained by calling 939-4351.

FARMERS' MARKET

Farmers Market is held every Thursday evening from 6 - 9 p.m. at the arena. This week will probably be the last chance to purchase bedding plants.

BIKE A THON

The Kinsmen Club of Morinville will sponsor its third annual bike a thon on Saturday, June 9. Participants are requested to meet at the recreation centre at 8 a.m. to begin the 24 mile route. They will cycle 4 miles north of the town and back three times.

Pledge forms may be obtained at the IGA, Notre Dame or G. P. Vanier Schools.

Cash prizes of $100 are being offered for the most money turned in according to two age categories: 13 years and over, and 12 years and under. $50 will be awarded as second prize in each age group.

GRADE ONE INTRODUCED

Notice to parents of prospective Grade One children. There will be an Introduction to Grade One by Mr. Eshpeter, principal, Monday June 11 at 7:30 p.m. in the Notre Dame gym.

Brown - Szott wedding solemnized

By Liz McLeod

A beautiful wedding was solemnized in St. Albert's Catholic Church, on April 21 at 3:30 p.m., when Miss Peggy Sue Szott of Edmonton pledged her vows in a double ring ceremony, to Mr. Dwayne Matthew Brown of St. Albert.

Peggy is the daughter of John and Gerry Szott. She grew up in the Volmer district, east of Calahoo, where her parents owned and operated the Volmer Store before moving to Mink Lake Resort.

Dwayne is the youngest son of Fred and Madeline Brown. He grew up in the Green Willow district of Calahoo, before the family moved to St. Albert.

The church was tastefully decorated under the direction of Mr. Frank Tinning. The officiating clergyman was Father Joly with Mr. Murray capably performing at the organ. Mr. Mike Vanneste was the soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride came down the aisle looking radiant in her old fashioned gown with lace sleeves complemented by a matching long veil that formed a train. She carried a bouquet of yellow and white roses on a fan.

Maid of Honor Cheryl Tinning, bridesmaid Debbie Stecyk and flowergirl Karen Atkinson, the groom's niece all wore yellow gowns and their bouquets were yellow and white roses.

Attending the groom were Dale Brenneis and Jack Szott with ringbearer, Shannon Gooden. They were dressed in dark brown tuxedos.

The bride's brother-in-law Frank Tinning and the groom's brother, Russell Brown, ushered in the many guests at the church ceremony.

Cindy and Susie Szott received the guests at the St. Albert Community Hall, where the reception and dance were held.

For her daughter's wedding the bride's mother chose an off-white gown, enhanced by pink roses corsage. The groom's mother looked equally elegant in her light green gown and like corsage.

Yellow and white streamers and bells gave the hall a festive tone and the wedding cake was decorated with yellow roses and a fitting top.

The groom's brother-in-law, Lionel Sabourin, capably served as master of ceremonies and proposed the toast to the bride.

For their honeymoon trip to Wyoming and Jasper, Peggy chose a flowery summer dress and sandals. This couple will reside west of Edmonton on 118 Avenue.

Out of town guests were Mr. George Coulthard from Cumbria, England; Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Pleasance and family from Nelson, B.C., and relatives and friends from home.

Congratulations one and all!

Denise Kerckhof honored at shower

By Liz McLeod

Miss Denise Kerckhof of RR 1 Calahoo was honored by a miscellaneous shower in the Calahoo church basement on Thursday, May 24 at 8 p.m.

Pink and blue streamers decorated the walls. A blue shower parasol and blue candles adorned the head table. Seated at this head table were the bride-elect's mother, Mrs. Theresa Kerckhof of R.R. 1 Calahoo; bridesmaids-to-be, Georgetown in Brabant, Jackie Mac-Fadden, Denise, and the groom-to-be's sister, Georgina Korolchuk and the groom's mother, Mrs. Tony Mary Korolchuk who came from Quill Lake, Saskatchewan to attend this day.

Mrs. Claudette Borle of Riviere Qui Barre and Mrs. Hilda Schoenberger, R.R. 1 Calahoo won prizes during the course of the evening.

Corrina Goodmanson, Cindy Steinkampf and Diana Kerckhof, attended to the guest book.

It was most unfortunate that Mary Kerckhof wasn't well enough to attend her sister's shower.

Denise thanked everyone for the many lovely gifts which were opened and admired by all 50 people in attendance. Special thanks went to the ladies who organized this happy event: Mary Victor; Lillian Lischewski, Audrey Steinkampf, Elaine Van Brabant and Liz McLeod, they thank all who helped by bringing lunch.

Former Calahoo girl wed in city

By Liz McLeod

A beautiful wedding was solemnized in Beverly United Church, Edmonton, on April 28 at 2 p.m., uniting Miss Lori May Zacharias and Mr. Randall Breeuwsma in marriage.

Lori grew up in Calahoo and is the eldest daughter of Jack and Chris Zacharias, who for a time managed the Calahoo grocery store.

Randall is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Breeuwsma, Edmonton.

Officiating at this happy event was the Reverend Mr. Norman MacDonald while the wedding music was played by Mr. R. Harrison.

Given in marriage by her parents, the bride was radiant in her white satin gown with train and laced sleeves. Her long veil, with lace and forming a train, was held in place by a cap-style headpiece. She carried a bouquet of red roses with baby's breath, enhanced by ribbon streamers and buds.

Maid of Honor, Helene Borris, and bridesmaids, Jane Courtepatte, and sister to the bride, Sharon Zacharias, were identically dressed in yellow pleated gowns, and they carried bouquets of yellow roses and white carnations with trailing ribbons. The little flowergirl was also in a yellow gown.

The groomsmen were Mr. Albert Moes, Mr. Edward Arbon and Mr. Timothy Harder. They wore dark brown suits with off-white shirts, dark brown bow ties and wore a yellow carnation boutonniere. The groom was handsome in a beige suit. The young ringbearer, wore brown as did the groomsmen.

The ushers for this happy event were Dennis Harder and Everett Moes.

A reception followed at the Sawmill Dining Lounge in St. Albert with Fred Breeuwsma being master of ceremonies.

while Darlene Harder proposed the toast to the bride.

For her daughter's wedding, the bride's mother chose a beige mid-length dress, enhanced by a corsage of white carnations and red rose buds.

The groom's mother looked equally elegant in her long green gown, enhanced by her corsage of a white carnation and four red rose buds.

The three layer wedding cake was decorated with yellow roses, to match the yellow streamers which bedecked the hall.

For her wedding trip to Vancouver, Victoria and points in British Columbia, the bride donned a beige skirt, and peach colored blouse, complemented with a white vest and white shoes. This couple are making their home in Edmonton.

Out of town guests included aunts, uncles, cousins and friends from British Columbia, Saskatoon, Saskatchewan, Warman and Edmonton.

Congratulations one and all.

Second year quota in agriculture and forestry set

The 1979-80 enrollment quota for second year students in the University of Alberta's Faculty of Agriculture and Forestry is 240.

The figure was approved Friday by the university's Board of Governors in connection with a motion from its academic concerns committee.

In the second year, general agriculture can take 120 students, food science can take 20 students, forestry can accommodate 60 students, and pre-veterinary medicine can accept 40 students.

The 1979-80 quota for first year students in the faculty, as approved by the Board on April 6, is 210.

FRIENDSHIP SUNDAY.

The congregations of Namao, Patricia and Bon Accord United Churches will hold a joint service, "Friendship Sunday", on Sunday, June 10th, at 10:30 a.m. in the Bon Accord Community Hall. This service will include special music, baptism and communion. A pot-luck lunch will follow in the basement. Bring enough food for your own family, plus a little to share. Child care will be provided during the service, at the Bon Accord Church.

There will be no services in the churches that Sunday morning.

NAMAO STUDENTS GRADUATE U OF A

Debbie Rye only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ken Rye, graduated from the University of Alberta with a Bachelor of Education Degree at Convocation ceremonies on May 28, 1979. She has taken a job working with the Special Education class at Black Diamond, Alberta starting in September.

Debbie attended Namao Elementary and Junior High School and M. E. Lazerte High School in Edmonton, graduating in 1975. For many years Debbie took a keen interest in Namao 4-H Buttons and Bows Clothing Club, and was a Junior Leader teaching first and second year girls to sew. She sang in the choir at Namao United Church and her other interest is sports. She played volleyball and basketball at Namao and Lazerte Schools and Junior League ball with the Bon Accord Gems for five years.

Calvin Rye has graduated with a Bachelor of Commerce Degree from the University of Alberta. He has moved to Calgary with his wife Laurie and is working for Amoco Oil Company. Cal attended Namao School and Lazerte High School for three years and one year at Queen Elizabeth High School graduating in 1974.

Also interested in sports Cal played hardball and hockey at Namao and has been in the ski patrol at Lake Eden.

EVERGREEN PARK PAT- TER

by Vina McCormack
We're back again. It seems the yard work is nearly finished. Old Smokey says lay off the bushes, or company will need a map of the terrain and a machete to find the house.

CAMP OUT

We've been hearing about the Grade nine trip to Long Lake next weekend. Kathy and Jo-Anne are quite excited. Watch out for frogs and creepy crawlers gals. Another big day for the Grade niners is on June 15. It's Grad.

WELCOME

There's a new kid on the block, and from what we hear he's a real champ. He's Nicholas Dove Cote, and weighed in at five pounds 13 ounces on May 22nd.

Carol and Lyne are the happy promoters of this young world beater. Congratulations.

SORRY YOU'RE LEAVING

The Fennima family will be moving soon. Conrad Hilda and their two kids are building a new home. They will be missed, but good luck folks.

FIRE DEPARTMENT

We retract the Lucille Ball episode statement. Our gals are great. There was a hose coupling competition held at Hinton. Beverly Lazeta tells us that Hinton folks really know how to last. Are you ready for this - the ladies team finished seven tenths of a second behind the winners and carried off second place trophies. Our gals Bea Lazeta, Linda Davis (F.P.O.), Arlene Giesinger and June Costea, were accompanied by their husbands who made up the mens team. The fellows did not finish in the trophy class, but Chief Don Lazeta and Dave Schultz recently made class one in the courses held at Vermilion.

The turn out for Monday night's meeting was considerable, so it's hoped Monday is the better night.

We sure must seem repetitious but, that "Triple 'S' Freeway" is really too much. Driving along the other day, we caught the grader re-arranging the pot holes and just when we were getting to know where they were!

Since the clean up, which was a tremendous success, the Park is clean and greener than ever. It's nice to come home to.

Till next time, remember the buddy system when you're in the water kids. Summer is supposed to be fun not fatal.

P.S. Thanks for letting us know that the column was missed last week.

There will be a Blood Donor Clinic in the Bon Accord Community Centre on Tuesday, June 12 from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. sponsored by the #524 Sturgeon Air Cadets. Babysitting will be provided. Come and give "the gift of life."

Mary Stewart's "Touch Not the Cat" will keep you entranced as a girl's power of telepathy is tested when her father is killed in a mysterious accident.

A thriller in which two survivors of World War II -- one saved the other's life and taught him to be a spy -- are pitted against each other in the theme of "Yesterday's Spy" by Len Deighton. Author Claire Raynor's book "Bedford Row" is set in London and Scutari during the Crimean War and focuses on two families.

In the non-fiction department you will find "Eagle Has Landed" in which author Jack Higgins combines documented and undocumented material to tell how, in 1943, Nazi paratroopers landed in England to capture Winston Churchill.

"Guilty Until Proven Innocent" covers the murder case of 18 year old Peter Reilly who was talked into confessing the murder of his mother -- and found innocent two and one half years later.

Please feel free to ask about any book you cannot locate -- we will attempt to either purchase it, or borrow it for you through an inter-library loan.

The Library Board would welcome any volunteers who wish to help out in the library -- especially those that can assist at the librarian's desk giving service. This is not a difficult job, and you will not be left on your own as present volunteers will train you. It is also an excellent way to meet people, if you happen to be new in town. It is the Board's wish to offer the best service possible to the people of the area, by keeping the library open as many hours each week as possible -- this they can only do with the help of many more volunteers. Please drop into the library and ask how you can help.

The library is presently open two afternoons a week, Saturday and Wednesday from 1 to 3 p.m. and on Monday, Tuesday and Thursday evenings from 7 to 9 p.m. Story hour for young children is on Saturdays at 1 o'clock.

A Salute to the International Year of the Child.

by Lorraine Isley.

To start our salute to the younger generation off on a good foot, we in cooperation with the Gibbons School, held a poster contest, with a prize being awarded for the best poster in each grade that took part. A number of the posters that were done for the contest will be on display in the arena during our fair.

We are starting off our weekend of activities with a teen disco for 12 - 16 year olds only (I.D. will be required). The parade has a special bicycle section for children of all ages, to decorate their bikes and participate in the parade, the best part is the fact there is a prize for the best decorated bike.

We have expanded our home baking and handicrafts to include special categories in the Baking of cakes, cookies, cupcakes, tarts, and candy. For youngsters who work with their hands there are special sections in the handicrafts section for knitting, sewing, embroidery, crochet, string art, rugs, photography, art in any media, pottery and ceramics.

If the children want spectator sports there is the 4-H dairy show Saturday afternoon and the horse show which runs all day Sunday, also a minor soccer tournament which runs both Saturday and Sunday. Of course there are rides by Crown Amusements and the fish pond.

Air Cadets on Parade

No. 524 Sturgeon Air Cadets

The squadron has been busy since the final inspection as 19 cadets went glider flying at Cooking Lake last Wednesday, May 30. Then on Saturday, June 2 about 23 cadets and some parents left CFB Namao for a flight in a Hercules, arranged for and piloted by our liaison officer, Captain Ken McLennan. Unfortunately, the flight was a bit rough and "barf bags" were in evidence. Even so the majority of the passengers found the flight an interesting experience. Thank you Capt. McLennan.

Glider flying at Cooking Lake has been planned for Wednesday, June 6 as well.

Correction of some errors are as follows: Venture

Training alternatives are LAC J. Milligan and LAC D. St. Germaine. Photography - Cpl. R. Samis with alternate Cpl. V. Graca and Junior Leaders camp - Cpl. D. Melville.

Cadets and parents are reminded of the squadron-sponsored Blood Donor Clinic to be held on Tuesday, June 12 from 6:30 to 8:30 in the Bon Accord Community Centre.

Junior Achievement even into discos now

Over 500 people attended Junior Achievement's 15th annual Future Unlimited banquet at the Edmonton Plaza, Friday, May 11.

Representatives from business, school and government joined the Achievers and their parents in honoring outstanding individual and group performance as demonstrated through the operations of companies in the Junior Achievement Program.

The Achiever of the Year Award, recognizing outstanding leadership abilities within her J.A. company as well as outstanding citizenship in the Edmonton community was won by Miss Kim Smith. Mr. Brian Paul presented the award on behalf of the Edmonton Jaycees.

Studio 13, a Junior Achievement Company counselled by Allarco was selected Most Outstanding Company of the Year. Unlike most J.A. companies which manufacture and market a product, Studio 13 marketed a service. Their well-run discos resulted in one of the most successful service companies in the history of Junior Achievement of Canada. Mr. S. C. Owen presented the award on behalf of the Edmonton Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Peter Pocklington, president of Westown Ford, and owner of the Edmonton

Oilers and Edmonton Drillers and a well known advocate of the free enterprise system, was guest speaker for the evening. He stressed the importance of confidence and hard work in attaining any success. In Mr. Pocklington's eyes, the person who works hard and uses his abilities to the utmost is a greater "hero," even if he comes in second, than a winner who does not make full use of his abilities.

Junior Achievement of Edmonton, a non-profit organization is dedicated to the education of youth in business and is financed by contributions from the Edmonton business community.

The old station at Gibbons

By Margarette Atkinson

The boarded up structure of the old railway station at Gibbons brings back (to me) "echoes" of a by-gone era.

I can still hear the "clickety-clacking" of the telegraph keys as the communications went on across a network of railway stations up the line.

In the deep recesses of my mind I also hear the echoes of children's laughter. Many children lived in that place attended school and went out into the great world to take their place as was meant in life.

The station waiting room and office for tickets was a very busy place. So too the outside of that station when the passenger train, with its steam locomotive came in alongside that heavily-planned station platform.

In those days the whole west end of Gibbons main street was a beehive of activity. Very few people owned cars then and with just dirt roads to travel on, the city or any other place seemed far away.

The house within the station consisted of: a sunny high-ceilinged kitchen with a big coal and wood kitchen range and washstand; a long sitting room with several bedrooms off it, and a freight shed where very large parcels or furniture were placed. Parts for binders and twine, mom's stove and many other people's coal heaters or stoves, (ordered from a catalogue) came this way and were placed into the freight-shed.

For the many station agents who sat in the office, the green eye shades was a part of their official gear. The wide desk chair and the many clipboards held orders and telegrams for people at Gibbons. There was also the ink-pen and bottle of ink and the extra blotters for the big counter-desk which ran the length of the three-sided window (set out a bit so the agent could watch for a train, along both north and south).

Quite often the agent got a message on the telegraph key for a speeding "extra," which was on its way already before the message could be given to the engineer or fireman. Or perhaps a telegram for someone on that speeding "extra."

The agent had to put that message onto paper and attach this to a bamboo hoop with a long handle.

He would then go out across the track and push a lever to make a signal board go up. The engineer on that "coming" extra, could know, a message awaited him.

As the extra freight would pass on through the agent held up that bamboo hoop containing the paper message and the engineer would have an arm ready to grab it taking off the paper and then throwing out the hoop so the agent or some of us kids could catch it for him.

Kids nowadays miss out on the excitement of those "happenings." There was always something going on at that station at Gibbons. Halloween parties where we tried to grab an apple (hands tied) from strings tied to a rope which ran from one side of the waiting room to the other. Or we "bobbed" for apples in a tub of water, or ended up telling ghost stories around the big pot-bellied coal heater in the station waiting room. There was a smell of lemon oil which was used to polish the V-joint which was halfway up the walls then. The varnish glowing brown and amber in the lamplight of the kerosene lamp, which stood on the ticket counter as the coal snapped and crackled in the heater so cozily.

Warm memories came to me as I gaze at that station. But also there is a sadness because the vandalism which has destroyed so much of the walls which held so much laughter, farewell tears of people going away, or the welcoming cries of a tiny bundle or a new mother brought home.

I can remember many now-grown children bringing home their own tiny bundles. Some of these were grand children as well.

What nice rooms the station would be for cubs, brownies and so on. I am sure they could have used it right where it is. And it would surely have had the warmth brought back to it. Have you ever noticed how even the saddest, most neglected looking place can seem to "perk right up," if there's someone with laughter and cheer in it?

I was given the chance many years ago by officials of C.N. to occupy that Gibbons Station. However, not certain at that time of the roads etc., we gave it up and remained in the city.

Perhaps now, looking at that building, people and their families new residents can realize the wonderful times that went on at "The Old Gibbons Station."

Assistance for Alberta farmers

Alberta Agriculture recently outlined the number and variety of services and programs available in Al-programs available to Alberta farmers. Following is a sample.

*Agricultural Engineering Extension Services provide free advice to farmers on all types of agricultural engineering problems.

*An agricultural law specialist, located in Lethbridge, provides free advice to farmers and farm groups on Alberta law, particularly as it relates to agriculture.

*The Farmers' Advocate of Alberta, located in Edmonton, is responsible for seeing that the rights of individual farmers are protected.

*The Animal Pest Control Program provides protection for livestock against coyotes through advice, training, assistance and approved control techniques carried out by municipal pest control officers. A regional predator specialist can be called upon to help remove killer coyotes.

*The Crop Improvement Program is designed to provide information to farmers on cropping procedures as well as on the production and marketing of cereal, oilseed, forage and special crops.

*The Feed Testing Service, located in Edmonton, analyzes hay, silage, grain and other feeds to determine their nutrient content and whether there are excessive levels of such things as nitrates.

*The Production Costs and Returns Information Service provides farmers with the costs and returns involved in the production of various agricultural commodities under a variety of conditions and in the different areas of the province.

*The Soil Conservation Program is designed to help farmers with soil erosion, salinity and solonchic problems.

*The Veterinary Field Services carry out preventative veterinary medicine through inspection programs, educational programs and farm visits. They are also responsible for enforcing legislation pertaining to livestock, for carrying out disease investigations and for providing advisory and consulting services.

*The Livestock Listing Service provides referrals to farmers who are looking for a suitable source of breeding stock. The staff will also purchase breeding stock on a cost basis for farmers who deposit the money with Alberta Agriculture.

Additional programs and services listed in a publication entitled "Assistance Available to Alberta Farmers" (Agdex No. 871) can be obtained from district agriculturists.

Control of fabric pests

Fabric pests may be at work in your home. The larvae of carpet beetles and clothes moths do a great deal of damage to natural materials, such as woolens, furs, silk, feathers, hair and natural bristles.

Carpet beetles are much more common than clothes moths and do more damage. They often go unnoticed because of their small size and because they hide in crevices in woodwork. Fabric pests are found in all provinces, although not all species of carpet beetles exist across the country.

Agriculture Canada specialists say the first step in controlling these pests is to regularly vacuum carpets and furniture. And remember to store fabrics, particularly woolens, properly. The specialists recommend using air-tight storage containers.

Disease-resistant elm identified

Research by a team of Agriculture Canada and Canadian Forestry Service scientists has identified new sources of a little-known Japanese elm that is highly resistant to Dutch Elm Disease.

One selection of the Japanese elm has already been released under the name Jacan. It may help replace North American elms that have been killed by the disease.

Jacan is being released through the Canadian Ornamental Plant Foundation. Commercial nurseries in Canada should have some stock for sale within two years.

No mill increase for Redwater residents

The Redwater Town Council advises residents that the 1979 budget has been accepted, and the mill rate set. The mill rate on residential property will remain the same as 1978 at 18.5; 9.2 mills for Town and 9.3 mills for Sturgeon School Division. Commercial and vacant residential have been increased to 8.6 from 8.3 mills for Provincial School Foundation tax.

The 1979 budget shows a total expenditure of $880,146 being $534,242 for Municipal purposes, $249,065 for Sturgeon School Division and $96,839 for Provincial School Foundation. The town budget shows expenditures of $106,800 for General Government, $75,615 for Protective Services, $104,070 for Transportation Services, $61,840 for Environmental Health, $103,221 for Recreation and Cultural and $82,696 for Fiscal Services. The town is estimating a non-tax revenue of $297,446 plus $235,245 being raised by taxation.

Council would also like to advise residents that the paving program will cause some inconvenience and residents are asked to bear with this for the improvement of the town. It appears that the paving will commence in the area north of the Hospital with the hospital road being first. The next likely area will be the south side of the town.

The swimming pool has been late in the opening this year due to necessary extensive repairs. The contractor has nearly completed repairs and the pool will be opening shortly. The rates for 1979 have remained the same as 1978; being: Family Season Ticket $40., Single Season Ticket $15., and individual rates at 25 cents for pre-schoolers, 75 cents for children and $1.50 for 18 years and older.

NOTES FROM AGRICULTURE CANADA

WATERFOWL CROP DAMAGE PROGRAM

A new five-year program recently announced by the federal government will provide Alberta farmers with compensation for crop losses caused by migratory waterfowl.

The program also includes damage prevention projects to minimize losses to farmers in the future.

Agriculture Canada will administer the $3 million compensation program while the Canadian Wildlife Service of Environment Canada will be responsible for the $1.3 million damage prevention program.

Damage by waterfowl, particularly mallard and pintail ducks, affects about one per cent of total production on the prairies in an average year. But migratory birds tend to concentrate in certain areas, and crop damage in these areas can be substantial.

The federal and provincial governments will soon work out co-operative agreements and administrative details of the program.

Waterfowl damage prevention and compensation programs were first launched in 1972. A $1 million-per-year program was in effect until last year, when the federal government increased its contribution to $2.8 million $1.5 million for compensation and $1.3 million for prevention. The prairie provinces matched the federal funding.

The increase in funding under the new program will cover all legitimate claims in most years.

Compensation to farmers with waterfowl damage to their crops will continue to be based on crop values up to $50 per acre.

The damage prevention part of the program will be aimed at reducing the problem by managing sites where the most waterfowl damage occurs. These areas will be run as permanent wildlife areas. They are mostly located in and around wetlands and other desirable habitats for waterfowl. Lure crops and feed will be made available to attract birds from farmers' fields.

New hope for muck soils

Muck soils, the fertile black, organic soils found in pockets across Canada, are great for producing vegetables. Indeed the 3,000 hectare Holland Marsh just north of Toronto produces about two bushel-baskets full of vegetables for every man, woman and child in the country.

But because of the nature of muck soils, they gradually subside, losing depth until eventually all organic material disappears. This is caused by compaction and decomposition of the organic material by micro-organisms and enzymes in the soil.

Agriculture Canada scientists have recently found a possible solution to the problem. By adding copper the rate of decomposition may be reduced by as much as two-thirds.

New wagon for round bales

A new bale wagon that solves the problems of moving and storing giant, round, hay bales could be available to Canadian farmers within two years.

An Alberta company, Ag-Tech Industries Ltd., is developing the new wagon under a contract from Agriculture Canada.

Last summer a four-bale prototype wagon was built and tested under farm conditions. The wagon is fitted with a system to lift bales from the field, load them and later unload them in a vertical stack at the storage site.

The wagon can also be used to move bales from storage to winter feeding areas.

Commercial production of either four or six-bale wagons is expected within two years.

Football "quits" for Hole

By Marty O'Kell
St. Albertan Jim Hole has decided to "pack it in" as far as trying to earn a spot on the defending Grey Cup champion Edmonton Eskimos.

The 6' 2", 238 lb. Hole, told me, "the desire wasn't there" after a few days of training camp at Concordia College in Edmonton.

Hole was drafted by the Eskimos in February of 1978 from the University of Alberta Golden Bears as an offensive guard.

"I was doing well there, and they told me I was doing well," said Jim of training camp. "It just wasn't my bag," he added, "I thought I really wanted to play."

Hole didn't show up for training last Thursday, and called head coach Hugh Campbell after the scheduled practice to inform him of his decision.

"If you're not ready to give 100 percent, you might as well not go out," concluded Jim. He's working at his family's farm right now, saying there was plenty of work out there that had to be done.

Rodeo fastball tournament all filled up

Gary Mix, chairman of the 1st annual Rodeo Invitational Rainmakers fastball tournament, advised the Gazette Monday night that all 16 teams have paid their entry fee for the tournament which will be held June 15, 16 and 17 in conjunction with the St. Albert Kinsmen Rainmakers Rodeo.

All 16 teams have excellent credentials and should they play the type of ball they are all capable of, there won't be a soft game in the entire tournament.

Calahoo Chiefs, Devon,

Stony Plain Kings, Stony Plain Playboys, Camrose Windsor Hotel, United Plumbing, Lee's Restaurant, Lowrey's Firefighters, Retail Clerks, Runners World plus the four top St. Albert teams will be taking part. St. Albert teams assured of making the tournament are the LBH Builders, Territorial Juniors, and the Ottocrats, while the St. Albert A's and Namao Trojans are fighting it out for the other spot.

All four St. Albert teams will play their opening games Please Turn to Page C 14

Tennis tourney winners

The annual St. Albert Invitational Open tennis tournament was held this past weekend in sunny and breezy weather beginning with the mens singles matches on Friday evening and ending with the finals of all events on Sunday afternoon.

The singles events were limited to 32 entrants, and unfortunately in mens singles, there were many persons who were not admitted to the singles-as the A & B entrants were given first priority. The winner of the mens singles was Jim Tanner of Glenora (and Crestwood) over Bill MacDonald of Garneau 7-6, 6-1. The ladies singles final was a battle between two

Sturgeon Jets Jr. B Hockey Club recruiting

Any players planning on or thinking of attending the Jets training camp this fall for the 1979 - 80 hockey season are asked to call one of the following people immediately: Manager Norm Hooper at 939-4603 or Coach Terry Maslyk at 939-4098.

Marty O'Kell ON Sports

I HAD A VERY INTERESTING CONVERSATION with an English Soccer coach last week.

The man was thirty year old Allan Gillett, coach of the now third division team Wimbledon. Some of the things he said about the recent history of the game of soccer in England can be translated to what is happening with hockey in Canada.

First off . . . Alan said he considers the English First Division the best soccer league in the world. So I asked him, why hasn't England fielded a winning team in World Cup Play since their big win in 1966? (What with all the super players in the league).

He answered, "The national team does not have direction or discipline."

"For years" he added, "other countries looked to England to learn about soccer . . . the Germans, the Dutch, and they developed systems which are now better than ours."

"We have been letting the players go out on Saturday's to run around" said Gillett, referring to the usual Saturday soccer matches in England.

He told me that the attitude is changing now, they are beginning to "work at the game" again.

But the most important statement he made was, "No matter how good a player is, he always needs direction." Think about it . . . especially after Team NHL's loss to the Soviet Union this past winter. We are falling into the same type of pit.

Gillett has been brought over from England by the Alberta Soccer Association and the provincial Parks and Recreation Department. He will be conducting coaching clinics around Alberta for the next three weeks, with the primary purpose "to get people enjoying playing the game."

SPEAKING OF GAMES . . . the Summer Games, August 2 - 6, are in dire need of plenty of volunteers. Last week was Games Volunteer Week, designed at recruiting people to help with different areas of the Games. About 1400 volunteers are needed.

The "push" last week for volunteers didn't net that many people, according to Games PR man Jerry Manegre.

Come on folks . . . get involved. Get excited. Where is the ENTHUSIASM? Do your community a favor and hop down to the Percy Page Center on Mission Avenue, sign up as a volunteer for something, or we'll end up with the same people doing the work . . . AGAIN.

I HAVE TO SAY "THANKS" to Danny Woytiuk, who umpired our Gazette-CKST softball game on Sunday. Danny left while everyone was shaking hands, so I didn't get a chance to say thanks for a job well done. Danny was so good, he could get a job in the majors . . . he took control of the game and never let it get out of his grasp. Which is very difficult, you know, as media people are tough to control.

Anyways . . . the game, which we won 10-7, was real good. Surprisingly, there were no great big errors . . . a little sloppy around the edges sometimes, but nevertheless enjoyable.

Sometime in the near future, we'll have another game. (P.S. Dick Mather, you'll have to work on your hitting. It's great that you can hit the ball far, but the idea is to hit it into the outfield, NOT straight up in the air . . . pop fly like).

IT WILL BE A GOOD SUMMER FOR EDMONTON ESKIMO fans . . . you've probably heard already, ITV has received permission to show all Eskimo away games on their TV station . . . at least the ones that won't be telecast by the CBC or CTV networks.

And now we'll have to keep an eye on those usually BORING Wednesday baseball telecasts. The Montreal Expos seem to be "for real" this time around, so that means, if you're a real Canadian sports fan, you'll have to watch more baseball this season.

Oh . . . I can hear my wife screaming already.

JUST ANOTHER REMINDER FOR YOUNG SOCCER PLAYERS . . . it looks like there will be a soccer school this summer. Response to a possible school seems to indicate there is plenty of interest for one.

If you would like to join the five day, twenty hour session, pick up an application form at the Gazette front counter and take it to Bert Goldberger at the Percy Page Centre. Or you can visit Bert himself . . . but go before 2 p.m., cuz he's usually "out and about" after that time.

The school costs $35, but you get your own soccer ball and T-shirt to keep, plus a ticket to an Edmonton Drillers game. Happy kicking . . .

excellent 15 year old players, with Ainslie Lyons of Mayfield emerging the victor over Indra Gupta, also of Mayfield 6-4, 4-6, 6-4. The mens doubles winners were from Garneau-Bob Sinclair and Fred Kozak defeated Bill MacDonald (also of Garneau) and Bob Bell from Warner 6-2, 7-6. These men played an exceptionally long tie breaker in the second set eventually ending at 15-13.

Ainslie Lyons became the only double event winner in the tournament when she teamed with Jill Glowicki (also of Mayfield) to defeat Betty Ontkane and Judy Wood of St. Albert 6-2, 6-4. The winners in mixed doubles were Judy Wood of St. Albert and Bob Bell of Warner - over the father daughter team of Mo and Janet Phalempin 6-3, 4-6, 6-2. Mo and Janet are with the Mayfield.

With only a few exceptions the seeded players all progressed to the semi-finals. The mens doubles winners however were the only top seeds to run true to prediction by winning.

There were secondary events in all categories for those players who lost their first round match. The winner of the mens singles secondary was 15 year old Ashley Sage of St. Albert who defeated Ron Gegolick of King Edward Park 6-4, 6-3. Ladies Singles secondary winner was Fay Harris of Mayfield over Joan Wright of Warner 7-6, 3-6, 6-3. Mens doubles secondary winners were Fred Tarlton and Doug Afanasiff of King Edward Park who defeated Dale Kurka and Dan McCaffery of St. Albert 6-2, 6-4. The Ladies doubles secondary final was an all St. Albert event with Jeanette Titus and Angela Miller defeating Sally Toft and Bonnie Childs 6-1, 5-7, 6-3. The secondary mixed doubles winners were Dan McCaffery and Margaret Bagby of St. Albert over Irene Church and Rick Kalawajys of Capilano 4-6, 6-4, 6-2.

As can be seen there were entrants from a large variety of clubs including Broadmoor, Coronation, Calgary, Fort Saskatchewan and Hillcrest in addition to the ones mentioned above as winners or runners up. The total number of men entered in the tournament was 63, and there were 30 women - for a total of 93 entrants.

Much thanks is due to Fred Resler, the tournament drawmaster; for a job well done, as well as all those club members who helped run the draw or provide refreshments.

Summer Games Trials - Those players planning to enter the Summer Games trials June 16 are reminded to pick up an entry form at the clubhouse as the deadline is June 13.

Friday night at the new Meadowview Diamonds while the remainder of the teams will open play Saturday morning at 9 a.m. with games going every two hours from then on.

Semi-final play will begin at 10 a.m. Sunday with the final to be played at 4 p.m.

Two thousand dollars in prize money will be up for grabs in the double knockout style tournament with the winner of "A" taking home $1,000. The loser gets $400 and in the "B" draw, the winner's share is $400 with the runner-up getting $200.

Admission will be charged at the gate but for those people who have their $5 season ticket pass, they will be admitted free of charge. Season passes are available at Armstrong's Men's Wear in the Grandin Park Shopping Centre.

Concessions will be open for all games and bathroom facilities will also be set up.

Fastball Blue Jays need coach

The St. Albert Blue Jays of the Greater St. Albert Men's Fastball Association desperately need a coach for the balance of the 1979 season. The team plays two games per week and usually practices once a week.

SALA Lacrosse News

Only one game was played this week in Lacrosse - the RMC Saints versus Enoch: with the Saints coming away the victors in a 9-3 win. The Novice Standard Generals were scheduled to play; but once again no team showed up, so they won by default. It is hoped that the second half of the season will be better for the Novices.

After the first round of Bantam league games, the St. Albert Toros have been classified as a "B" team, and the RMC Saints as a "C" team. Therefore, the R. M.C. Saints will be eligible to compete in the Alberta Summer Games.

Plans are well underway for the July 1st Bantam tournament, as well as for the Lacrosse portion of the Alberta Summer Games. Although the response for volunteers for the Summer Games has been good, more volunteers are still needed for Lacrosse. Anyone interested in lending a hand August 5th and 6th, and thereby being involved in a truly Canadian sport, please call Terry or Barbara Baller at 458-9039.

Following is a schedule of league games for the remainder of the season:

NOVICE - STANDARD GENERALS:

Monday, June 11 - 6:30 p.m. vs. West Edmonton, Crestwood Arena.

Wednesday, June 13, 6:30 p.m. vs. South Edmonton, Akinsdale Arena.

Thursday, June 21, 6:30 p.m. vs. Enoch, Crestwood Arena.

BANTAM - R.M.C. SAINTS.

Monday, June 4, 7:45 p.m. vs. Goldbar, Perron St. Arena.

Wednesday, June 13, 7:30 p.m. vs. Toros, Akinsdale Arena.

Monday, June 18, 7:30 p.m. vs. West Edmonton, Crestwood Arena.

Wednesday, June 20, 7:00 p.m. vs. Enoch, Enoch Arena.

Thursday, June 28, 8:00 p.m. vs. South Edmonton, Crestwood Arena.

BANTAM - TOROS

Monday, June 4, 6:30 p.m. vs. South Edmonton, Perron Street Arena.

Wednesday, June 6, 7:30 p.m. vs. Enoch, Enoch Arena.

Wednesday, June 13, 7:30 p.m. vs. R.M.C. Saints, Akinsdale Arena.

Monday, June 18, 8:45 p.m. vs. Goldbar, Crestwood

Arena.

Tuesday, June 26, 8:00 p.m. vs. West Edmonton, Crestwood Arena.

A Coaches and Referees clinic is being put on by the Canadian Lacrosse Association on June 23 and 24 in Enoch. Price is $5., $6., after June 15, or at the door. Anyone interested should contact Paul Jardine 8600 - 106 Street, Edmonton. Phone number 489-8965.

Sturgeon Swingers keeping busy

The Marshall and Podersky interclub competitions are almost over and Sturgeon has been doing exceptionally well in both. In the Marshall, which is match play, the ladies have been running a close second. Sunday, the business girls scored 85½ points for the team, the most this year. Final results will be known this Thursday.

During the Marshall on Sunday, Molly Benfield broke 100 for the first time. She accomplished this despite a 10 on one hole and being in the water on another.

Fourteen of the ladies were entered in the Daisy at Windermere Tuesday. This is team competition and handicaps are used. Each hole has a $100 prize. We hope our girls got in on some of these and other prizes.

Next Thursday is the Geritol tournament starting at 10 a.m. The seniors have a great time dressing up and stopping at the mobile "refreshment" stand.

Good luck goes to the girls who made the Summer Games team. They will be playing in a zone playoff at Devon on June 24. Carrie Fritch and Judy Murray are our reps in the 10-20 handicap range; Doreen Ross and Flora Burry for 21 - 30 handicaps; and Ann Frechette and Dorothy East for seniors 60 and over. Until now, Ann has done a good job hiding her age from us, but last Tuesday she had to take some kidding from her fellow golfers.

Provincial recreation meet for the physically disabled

Edmonton's Paralympic Sports Association is hosting the Provincial Sport Qualifying and Recreation Meet for the Physically Disabled on Saturday, June 23.

About 30 athletes from throughout the province will be competing in swimming, track and field, table-tennis, slalom and archery.

The sports events will be held at the Commonwealth Swimming Pool, the South Side Athletic Grounds and the University of Alberta, commencing at 8:30 a.m.

As well, on Saturday, recreation events and an art and crafts display will be held at the ACT Centre in Rundle Park. Included are: photography, textiles, ceramics, crib, shuffleboard, darts and more.

Kiwanis Club helps St. Albert Gymnastics Club

An optional gymnastics competition was held on Sunday, June 3 at Lorne Akins Junior High. The meet consisted of the Norfort Gym Club of Fort McMurray, the Gymnks of Grande Prairie and our own St. Albert Gymnastics Club. The gym club was pleased to be able to sponsor this meet and would like to thank the Kiwanis Club for their generous donation of gold, silver, and bronze medals.

These medals were presented by President Ron Bjecke to the top three all round winners in each of the four age categories. These girls were:

Midgets (under 10 years) Gold - Suzanne Graff; Silver - Shawna Edmonds; Bronze - Rebecca Young. All of St. Albert.

Argo (under 12 years) Gold - Debbie Beckers (Norfort); Silver - Rhonda Aikens (Norfort); Bronze - Tammy Hanes (St. Albert).

Open B (10 - 13 years who had not competed in Provincials) Gold - Donna Girard (St. Albert); Silver - Lisa Jefferies (Norfort); Bronze - Lara Edmonds (St. Albert).

Open A (12 - 13 years) Gold - Barbara Bull (St. Albert); Silver - Kim Johnson (Norfort); Bronze Terry Ried (St. Albert).

Ribbons for 1st to 6th place are given in each event and 4th to 6th all round. The St. Albert Girls performed very well and received many ribbons for their dedication to the sport. The 4th to 6th place all round winners were:

Midget 4th - Sonya McAdam (St. Albert); 5th - Jennifer Arnold (St. Albert); 6th - Erin Heximer (St. Albert).

Argo 4th - Lawran Foster (Norfort); 5th Penny Widden (Gymnks); 6th Doreen Rigler (Gymnks).

Open B 4th - Jodi Groom (Norfort); 5th Karalee Stanners (St. Albert); 6th - Leanne Elfort (Grande Prairie).

Open A 4th - Jamie Spring (St. Albert); 5th - Dana Badowski (Norfort).

This weekend the St. Albert team is off the Fort McMurray for their last competition of the season.

The club would like to thank the residents of St. Albert for their support this past season. We had a Gymathon last fall as a fund raiser and have recently been selling garbage bags. Thanks to your support and the effort of many dedicated club members we have been able to buy over $14,000 worth of equipment this year.

A successful recreation season has just come to a close and we are looking forward to offering a more expansive program next year. With the addition of our new set of uneven bars we will be able to allow more active time per gymnast. Information about the club can be found by phoning 458-5912.

Bluejays win first of the season in men's fastball

St. Albert Bluejays scored a decisive 16 - 6 win over the Trophy Bank Colt 45's last Wednesday to pick up their first win in the season in the Greater St. Albert Men's Fastball League.

Jays were led by the pitching of Rich Mercier and the hitting of Peter Smith who tagged on for a homerun in the Jays 11-run second inning.

In other league play Monday night the LBH Builders dashed the Bluejays hopes for two in a row as they clobbered the Jays 11 - 1 in five innings.

Builders hammered out 11 hits including four baggers from Herman Tietz and John McCook, while Gene Lytwyn was impressive on the mound with seven strike outs.

Mercier took the loss and knocked in the only run for the Bluejays with a single in the third inning.

St. Albert Territorial Juniors are off to a great start with only one loss in five starts and that was a very close and exciting 4 - 2 loss to the Builders.

Juniors have fielded an excellent crop of youngsters and should they continue to play like they have in the first third of the season, they will be right up near the top when the playoffs roll around.

One of the surprising mysteries to date is the inconsistent play of the St. Albert A's who have an excellent team but just can't seem to put it together. They are in fifth place, three games behind the leaders.

Ottocrats hold down third place with five wins in seven outings while Namao Trojans are in fourth with three wins in five games.

Morinville I.C.S. are the only team without a win as they have dropped all five games.

Games are being played every night except Friday at either SAM school or Akinsdale.

The two new diamonds in Meadowview Park are coming along very well and the league should be able to get on these excellent facilities June 18th which is the Monday following the Rodeo Tournament (see other fast-ball story).

For Standings of the G.S.A.M.F.A., see the Minor Sports Scoreboard elsewhere in sports section.

NOW . . . WHAT DO I DO?

Soccer Oldtimers lost first game

The St. Albert Oldtimers Soccer Club began its first season at Victoria Soccer Club grounds on Friday evening, losing 2 - 0 to Croatia.

Scoring for Croatia were David Shone and Slavko Bunjevac.

Game two for the Oldtimers in the Edmonton

Oldtimers League is on Friday at 7 p.m. at Victoria. They will take on the other St. Albert team, the Wanderers.

STUDENTS! Summer Racquetball Program

SAMBA Bat-Time Stories

As told by Uncle Rick
In this week's edition: Dance and raffle information . . . A, B and C Divisions formed in mosquito-land . . . Photo Sports scores first victory, then wins "B" event at Rosslyn . . . Balsters and Nu-West play hard-to-get, but the "Shadow" knows . . . In Norwest League play - Who are Stanley's Steamers? And now, the details . . .

THE DANCE AND RAFFLE

For the record - Samba's 3rd Annual Baseball Dance tickets are going fast. It's on for this coming Friday, June 8 at the St. Albert Community Hall, dancing to the sounds of Steve Anthony from 9 pm to 1 am. Tickets can be arranged for - by phoning your "phoning mother" - just as easy as that. Refreshments and lunch will be available. People who enjoy baseball come - even if they can't dance. It happens every time!

Also - St. Albert residents are now getting the opportunity to win a total of seven 10 speed bicycles on July 16. Samba's annual bicycle raffle sales are now being conducted throughout St. Albert by members of the various Samba ball clubs. It's part of a fund raising drive that gives teams a chance to share in the profits. First prize is two 10 speed Corsa C.C.M. bikes and five more of the same types of bicycles will be awarded to five individual lucky winners. Push, pull, click, click - it can't cost you more than 50¢.

MOSQUITOS DIVIDE INTO 3 EQUALIZED DIVISIONS

A DIVISION

	W	L	T	P
Melton's M-M	10	1	0	20

St. A. Rangers	5	5	1	11
St. A. Royals	4	7	0	8

C DIVISION

Mohawk Braves	3	7	1	7
NW Homers	2	6	1	5
Sturgeon Meats	2	8	1	5
Gazette Cards	1	10	0	2

'Tis a brand new season for mosquito league base-ballers as division head Chuck Jones brought out a new "spin 'n span" schedule for the rest of the year.

Looming tough in the "A" section is Melton's Mighty Mites and arch-rival Lacombe Park Red Roosters. The Roosters roosted on the top rung of the cage for most of the first half.

The "B" category is wide open with any of the four, Giants, Beavers, Rangers and Royals capable to go "all the way."

We figure the Mohawk Braves or the lowly Gazette Cards should battle it out for the title but you never know for sure.

At any rate, the scores should be closer and the games more fun for everyone.

Woops! Trevor Taylor of the Buxton Beavers, just came to our door to sell us a couple of SAMBA raffle tickets. Trevor said his team was victorious tonight 16 - 6 . . . oh well!

PHOTO SPORT SHUTTERS WITH SUCCESS IN BEAVER DIVISION PLAYDOWNS

Bert LaBuick, crutches and all, jingled our phone last Monday for the first "official" time this year. Since winning coaches are honour-bound to call in results wherever and whenever possible - that happened to be Bert's mission and he gave us a developing tray full of info regarding his team's first success story of the house league season.

Monday night Photo Sport gave the Nu-West Homers a 22 - 13 "snap-shooting" with lots of help from a whole host of Photo Sport players. Highlight hitters included Dean Brandt, a newcomer to baseball this year, hitting a hard-hit homerun. Banging out triples were Steve Bratke and Ron Silvertown. Delightful doubles were cranked out by Kent Blair, Jeff Hehner and Daryl LaBuick. Daryl also received full credit for the win. Playing the outfield outstandingly were Pat Murphy, Dean Klemmer, and Kelly Pelton. Another photographer, Doug Thompson, really started hitting the ball.

Photo Sport has a record of one win and two losses in "B" Division Beaver action.

The Grandin Mallers have won two out of three of their last week's games. The Mallers rode rough shod over the Mission Ridge Dodgers 17 - 4. Then, after taking a 21 - 20 mud flapping from Neil's Trailer Kings they clipped the wings of Springer's Angels 24 - 11 for a second half record of two wins and three defeats.

By the way, we forgot to mention that Photo Sport had another bit of good news come their way last weekend. Bolstered by the big bat of Scott Rusnak (three home runs and three triples) and the pitching and clutch hitting of Kent Lafabvre, the Picture Takers captured the "B" side of the Beaver tournament at Rosslyn's sports complex in Edmonton.

To get to the "B" side was a painful experience as a wily West-tet-na Beaver team waxed them 16 - 4. From there, the Photo's focused on Kilkenny and won 10 - 9. Lafabvre broke that one wide open with a three bagger plus gaining the win. Onoway's Beavers were sent on their way 11 - 2 on pitching by Daryl LaBuick. In the "B" final always tough Barrhead were dark-roomed 36 - 14. Forrest Tillapaugh received credit for the multi-run tangle.

Beaver "A" division leaders, as of this writing, are the Crown Well Drillers and The Bucket - both with a pair of wins and no losses.

Coach Ash Kahn's Drillers have been getting very effective relief twirling from Darren Mazur and Kevin Haffard. Mazur took credit for a 20 - 15 shoveling of the Sod Busters. Bryan Olson smacked a round tripper for the Drillermen. Todd Carnelly and Rick Owen homered in a losing cause.

The Sportshop Cubs were caged 13 - 9 by the power-packed Crown crew. Victory was assured by the hit clobbering bats of Blaine Kennedy and Ernie Chartrand for reliever Haffard.

Wes Jendrick rapped heavily for the Cubs - a double and triple.

NU-WEST NAILS PENNINGTONS; PLAYOFFS BEGIN IN TWO WEEKS

BANTAM DIVISION

Pennington Blades	9	1
Assoc. Dry Wall Reds	9	1
NuWest Homers	8	2
Touch Inn Tigers	5	4
Neil's Trailer Kings	2	9
Link Hardware
Blue Jays	0	10

Coach Mike Wells Sr. and Touch Inn Tigers made it almost certain of their chance for a playoff position in the round-of-four playoffs as Bantam House League action comes to a screeching halt on June 14.

We don't have the details surrounding their late inning surge for a detouring of Neil's Trailer Kings Monday night.

The Tigers roared past the Link Blue Jays twice on different evenings. A cold blustery night proved no problem for the Tigers who committed only four miscues Danny Holliday and Mike Wells Jr. chipped in three RBI's among the six bingles bonked by the Touch Inn troupe. Winning chucker was Darrell Cockwill. John Holden played a strong game behind the plate for the Blue Jays.

A 15-13 squeaker on the 31st of May wrapped up a three game series between the Tigers and the Jays - with the big beasts garnering the complete set. It took a joint three-hit mound performance by Mike Wells Jr. and Blaine Weller, assisted by four RBI's from Mark Youzma, to do the job.

We don't have too much on an upset of Pennington's Blasters by the Nu-West Please Turn to Page C 17

Homers (previously reported as a win for the league pacemakers) "Not so," sez Bantam division chief Mance Torgimson, "Nu-West won 6-51." Associated Dry Wall Reds - tussled the Blasters last night (no score yet) and will go at it again tomorrow night - should be a couple of the best.

Also at the Rosslyn tourney last Saturday and Sunday were bantam teams - Blasters and NuWest. Word has it - they played each other with the Blasters the winners in that one. Pennington's made it to the semi-finals before tasting defeat.

Dag nab it! Why do we have to depend on rumors?

Hey! What's this? What goes with this new group "Stanley's Steamers"?

Well, as mentioned previously, the Fawcett "Leeks" midget entry - by default - is no more. Consequently, because of late registrations, and other reasons, a third St. Albert midget team has been organized under the tutelage of Wayne Stanley, and is expecting to finish the season in place of Fawcett. The "Steamers" have been "wild-cattin'" up until last Sunday when they filled in the Norwest League schedule with a double header against Norm Heemeryck's local St. Albert Saints losing both ends, 17-4 and 5-4. It was the second fray of the day that had Norm wondering as Terry Yost, Gerry Gleason and Russ Cockwill divided hurling chores in an attempt to stop the new entry from registering another late season upset.

"I was beginning to get a little concerned," relates Norm, "until the last out was away."

As for the other St. Albert midget machine - it was another hard luck Sunday.

Rochester's Padres left Mission Park Sunday evening with two bags of Cardinal feathers gleaned from a couple of come-from-behind victories from the same St. Albert team that recently had given the Spruce Grove-Co's their worst lacing of the season. Since that wonderful showing, the Rechlo-Balog coaches contingent have dropped four straight including the losses Sunday.

The Padre's Bob Mikulak and the Cards nifty right hander Doug Rechlo battled down to the wire in the first match - the Cardinals hitting safely eight times while Rechlo allowed only two - both in the final frame combining with a walk and several fielding mistakes to score Rochester's tying and eventual winning run.

A repeat performance came about the following game when Russ Luck of Rochester and Larry Schuchard of the Cards duled for six innings locked in a one-all tie. The Cardinal infield fell apart. Two scratch singles, a myriad of miscues and the Padres claimed win #2 scoring twice to "luck-out" 3-1 and hand Schuchard his initial loss of the season.

In order to wrap up a definite playoff spot at Barrhead in less than two weeks, the Cards must take the contest tonight against the Saints at Mission Park and do the same to Spruce Grove a week hence - a very tall order to say the least, but not impossible.

Linaria's Aces have been in a similar slump, losing to the Westlock Tigers a week ago Sunday 8-5 and 5-1. Coach Todd Hanlon's Rochester squad gained a 22-2 revenge from the Aces who had pelted the Padres earlier 6-4.

The winning streak of Barrhead's County Kings was helped along by the Onoway Bears (21-2) and (10-5). Onoway with good hitting but "some" pitching problems fell before the Saints lost Wednesday 22-10. Walks, by the bucketfuls, were directly responsible for at least eight of the tallies, according to Louise Harper, league statistician, who resides in Onoway. West and Osjust were winning flingers for the Kings.

SUNDAY'S MIDGET SCHEDULE [for June 10]

Westlock at St. Albert (Mission Park); Rochester at Onoway; Spruce Grove at Linaria. All games are twin bills slated for 1:30 p.m.

FROM THE DUGOUT

DIGGINS DEPT.

Bert LaBuick, Summer Games baseball co-ordinator, coach, umpire, etc. explains his recent injury to calf of right foot. During recent midget game, Bert was struck by an errant pitch on unprotected area of said foot. So far no explanation from doctor as to the full extent of problem. "One thing," sez Bert, "it's no problem to keep foot out of my mouth."

Wayne Stanley experts to travel to Rochester Friday night for exhibition match with the Padres. After 5-4 loss to Saints Sunday, Stanley's Steamers could be very competitive. Instead of a twin bill-of-fare against St. Albert Cardinals Sunday, Cardinals will play single games during the week and take next Sunday off. Spruce Grove - Cardinal affair billed for St. Albert next Wednesday could decide fate of Cards in league playoff. We Please Turn to Page C 19

ALBERTA GAMES IN MOTION

What are you doing in 1981? The 21 Alberta communities whose populations exceed 5,000 have already been invited to bid for the '81 Alberta Summer Games. If you're the type who doesn't even plan the weekend, scheduling two years into the future may seem excessively organized.

All that preparation becomes more realistic when you realize that 3,000 athletes (twice the number who attended last year's Commonwealth Games) will have to be welcomed, fed, bedded, transported and awarded over a four day period.

Since July of last year the 11 man/2 women Board of Directors for the '79 Summer Games in St. Albert has been methodically resolving problems that would challenge Holmes himself.

If 150 golfers tee off at a rate of 30 per hour, they will take from 7:00 a.m. until 12:30 p.m. When and how are they to be fed the lunch that all participants are provided? The Arts & Craft Fair will need a telephone by the cash register to check credit card purchases. Can an extension be installed without creating wires that will trip the unwary? The City of St. Albert allows buses only on certain streets. Keeping this in mind, what are the most direct routes for carrying athletes/spectators to all venues?

Lorne Wood, Board of Directors' Vice Chairman, was on the five-man committee that visited the Medicine Hat Games last winter to see how details such as these were handled. They observed, felt confident that St. Albert could successfully host a Games, reviewed facilities at home, and recommended that the City submit a bid to the Alberta Games Council.

The only major facilities' lack was a venue for Track and Field. "A track had already been in the City's plans, so the facility now being built isn't costing the people of St. Albert anything," said Lorne. "We're just getting it a little earlier."

August 2 - 6, delegations from some or all of those 21 communities will be visiting St. Albert to see how it's done. After all, the next Summer Games are only two years away!

FESTIVAL '79

The City of St. Albert's proposal for a Heritage Park will be introduced on a miniature scale prior to and during the Summer Games, August 2 - 6.

The Recreation Department is presently working on a 'master plan' for the city, to include cultural and historical development as well as recreational. Part of this plan includes a proposal to make the hillside below the Mission into an historical park.

Although plans for the park are still in the drawing-board stage, for the Summer Games, the City will construct a scaled-down version in the area of the Perron Street Arena.

With the theme of national unity, children will have the opportunity to 'visit' and participate in a representative activity for each Canadian province and territory. In the Yukon, for example, children could pan for gold; on a Quebec dairy farm they could make ice cream; and in a B.C. lumber mill the activity could be wood-working.

The Youth Activity Centre will be open from July 21 to August 6. More information may be obtained by contacting Festival '79, Box 1000, St. Albert at 458-4263

ZONE 5 UPDATE

Tennis (regional preliminaries) will be held June 16, 17 in St. Albert. Contact Lloyd Scherer, 63 Grandora Crescent, St. Albert at 458-4643.

June 15 is the entry deadline for Senior Men's Soccer playoffs to be held June 30, July 1, 2 in Hinton at the Pioneer Soccer Club. To register, contact John Halpin, Box 1555, Hinton at 865-3714/2521.

Vimy and Barrhead Broncos atop NCABL

The Vimy Blues and the Barrhead Broncos are currently sitting on top of the standings in the North Central Alberta Baseball League as of yesterday. The two teams both have identical records of four wins and one loss.

In action this past week, the Broncos doubled up the lowly Bon Accord Tigers 4-2, then clobbered the last place Alexander Braves 5-1. Broncos suffered their first defeat of the season on Sunday, losing a 1-0 squeaker to Waskatenau, who are currently playing .500 ball.

Vimy was also involved in a close match with Waskatenau, but topped the Chiefs 6-5 last Thursday. The Blues also bounced Rochester Royals 3-1, and bombed the Braves 11-0 on Sunday.

In other action around the league, the Barrhead Astros won a game by default when the Morinville Manufacturers failed to show with enough players. Waskatenau defeated Westlock 9-6, Morinville clipped Bon Accord 9-8 and the Astros were thundered 13-3 by Westlock.

W L T Perc.

Barr. Broncos	4	1	0	.800
Vimy	4	1	0	.800
Rochester	3	1	0	.750
Westlock	4	2	0	.666
Waskatenau	2	2	1	.500
Barr. Astros	1	3	0	.250
Morinville	1	3	1	.250
Bon Accord	1	4	0	.200
Alexander	1	5	0	.166

In action tonight, Morinville is in Vimy, the two Barrhead teams are squaring off in Barrhead, Waskatenau is in Bon Accord and Westlock is travelling to Rochester. All games start at 7:15 p.m.

Next Tuesday, Rochester will be in Barrhead taking on the Broncos. Westlock is in Vimy, Alexander will be in Morinville, and the Barrhead Astros will travel to Bon Accord. These games will also start at 7:15 p.m.

Organizational meeting for Moto-crossers

An organizational meeting has been set-up for those in the St. Albert area wishing to form a moto-cross and off-road bike club.

The meeting has been set for Wildrose School on Grenfell Avenue on Wednesday, June 13. The gathering will start at 7 p.m. in the lunch room.

Representatives from the Edmonton Motorcycle Club, the Alberta Safety Council and the St. Albert RCMP Detachment will be present to talk about a club and answer questions.

bat-time stories

Continued From Page C 17 maintain that the key to Barrhead's and Rochester's resurgence has been mid-week games - which the Cards have had very few.

Chuck Jones, "in charge guy" of Mosquito division activities should be congratulated for an exceptional job of scheduling. Out of 66 possible mosquito encounters only one rainout was not made up. Close games before first half was over included a 17-17 deadlock between Sturgeon Meat Cutters and Mohawk Braves ... Roosters 23 Royals 18 ... Seals 15 ... Rangers 12 ... St. Albert Gazette's first win of season a 22-11 butchering of Sturgeon Meats ... (almost as good as the Gazette's staff softball team).

It's hard to believe and we hate to be a tattle tale but it was downright embarrassing Sunday when a visiting waterboy from Rochester was turned down by someone at St. Albert's "private" tennis club when he asked to fill a jug of water. Is this St. Albert hospitality? We'll have to ponder this one ...

In passing, "Diamonds are a baseball player's best friend" as we've said many times - but when you can't get water - it makes playing "a mite" thirsty - eh, Jack? See you at the dance, Friday?

Introduction to competitive swimming night.

The Olympian Swim Club is holding an "Introduction to Competitive Swim Night," Tuesday evening, June 12 from 7 to 8 p.m., at the Fountain Park Pool. This session is free of charge and open to any swimmer who is six years of age or older, and who is able to swim 50 metres. Swimmers attending this session will have the opportunity of being coached professionally on stroke technique, be officially timed, and be able to watch some Olympian swimmers being put through their paces. This is an excellent opportunity for swimmers to work out with some of Alberta's top Age-Group swimmers and be coached by some of Alberta's best coaches. Swimmers who are already swimming competitively, as well as "first-timers" are invited to attend as well parents or friends who are interested in watching. We ask that anyone interested in coming out arrive 10 minutes early with towel, bathing suit, and lots of enthusiasm!

An "Aquatic Workshop" under the Directorship of Head Coach Don Packer, will also be held during the months of July and August. The Program will offer a variety of Aquatic activities with emphasis on Competitive Swimming. With concentrated work on technique, films and lectures, Don hopes to raise the level of competence of each swimmer. This workshop is open to swimmers considering Competitive Swimming, and who would like to "learn the ropes" before "taking the plunge," as well as swimmers who are already swimming competitively but feel they would like some individual help in some problem areas. There will be two one-hour sessions per week and the fee will be $10 per month. The exact times have not been finalized. Anyone interested may register for the Workshop at the Introductory Night on Tuesday, June 12.

6 man flag football league preparing for second year

An informal meeting of the St. Albert Flag Football Association has resulted in plans for expansion in 1979.

The league, which operated with eight teams in 1978, will add four teams and go to a divisional set-up. A seeding tournament will be held prior to the regular schedule to determine the strength of each entry. The two divisions will then be set-up on an equal strength basis which will allow for a competitive playoff format.

Early plans are for a regular schedule beginning in August with playoffs to go at the beginning of October.

The August schedule will involve weekday nights only with each team playing once per week. In September weekends will be added with all games on Sundays.

ORGANIZATIONAL MEETING

A meeting has been set for June 20 in the Grandin Clubhouse on Grenfell Ave. The 8 p.m. meeting will be open to all teams which have pre-registered in the league and any individuals who would like to play but have not hooked up with an established team. Registration will be limited to 12 teams with the four new teams considered on a first come first serve basis. The original eight member teams and any new teams must register with League President Larry Powers prior to the June 20 meeting. He may be reached at 458-7810 (home) or 459-4426 (work). The meeting will focus on rules, scheduling, refereeing, fees ($100 per team of 15 players), eligibility (players must live in St. Albert or the MD of Sturgeon or have parents residing in one or the other. Minimum age is 18), and the appointment of team directors to the League executive.

REFEREE CLINIC

Bill Wright, Referee Coordinator for the Alberta Amateur Football Association, will conduct a clinic Saturday, June 16 beginning at 9 am at Bertha Kennedy School. Each team planning to play in the League this season should have a representative at this clinic as refereeing is handled by member teams. Contact Larry at 458-7810 for further information.

Synchronized swimmers going to Calgary

Five St. Albert girls in the 10 and under will be going to Calgary this weekend to compete in the Alberta Provincial Finals for synchronized swimming.

The five, Andrea and Avril Manning, Jennifer Patterson, Heather Johnson and Siri Ming, competed on the weekend at the Northern Trials for synchronized swimming at the 700 Wing Pool. The girls are members of the Edmonton Aquadettes Synchronized Swim Club. The Aquadettes won the meet, over the only other northern Alberta club, the 700 Wing Kickers.

Siri Ming qualified second and Andrew Manning qualified fifth in solos, while Andrea teamed up with Edmontonian Melinda Ringrose to place first in the duets. Siri and Dawn Yaki-mets placed second in that category. Heather Johnson also qualified in figures.

There is a possibility that a synchronized swimming club might be formed in St. Albert if there is enough interest. If you would like to try out synchronized swimming, call Marilyn at 452-3030.

MINI MITE WEST SOCCER

Most teams have now played each other once and it appears that the Wild Cats are the strongest team in the league. However, many of the games have been very closely played and perhaps other teams can catch up by the end of June.

Pere Jan, although they have not won a game so far, are still trying very hard and hopefully will be more successful in the remainder of the season. Their team is comprised of French Immersion students in Grade 1 at Father Jan school and are at a disadvantage since all of the other teams have some players from Grade 2.

Morinville summer bonspiel underway

The Fourth Annual Morinville Summer Bonspiel got underway on Monday with the ladies section of the bonspiel. The 32 ladies teams competing played yesterday as well, and are continuing this evening.

The men's section will begin tomorrow with 64 rinks participating in the total spiel.

The men's category is divided into two flights, with the first flight of 32 rinks beginning at Thursday at 6 p.m. The flight will continue Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

The ladies will return to the ice next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, with the men's second flight starting next Thursday. That flight will continue till Saturday, June 16.

On Sunday, June 17, final playoffs will begin with the first contest at 10:30 a.m. The final for the Men's A, B and C sections and the ladies A section final will start at 7 p.m.

Juvenile girls soccer Jets blank Spruce Grove

St. Albert's juvenile girls soccer team, the Yellowbird Jets, won their first game on Monday with a 7-0 romp over Spruce Grove.

Player of the game Hiedi Worstford scored two goals and set up others in leading the Jets to the win. Sharon Van Buren was the top goal scorer for St. Albert with three goals. Singles went to Dorothy Kirk and Angela Hiscock.

The Jets lost their first two games, 3-0 to the Edmonton Blue Jays and 2-0 to Beverly.

phoneCentre makes life easier with speed, convenience and savings.***

When you live in a phoneCentre area, you can shop for phones, take them home, plug them in. phoneCentre is designed to fit today's lifestyles. Forget fitting a service call into your busy schedule. You visit phoneCentre at your convenience. And look what else you can do:

Arrange for service — initial installation through phoneCentre costs less than regular field installation. Choose extra phones or exchange phones for different styles and colors — at the time of initial service there's no-additional charge. If phones are added or exchanged later, there will be a small service fee.

Phones remain the property of AGT but the speed and convenience of phoneCentre are all yours.

**Speed and savings apply only to single-line residential customers in phoneCentre-serviced areas. Not applicable to business customers.*

One nice thing about moving is phoneCentre service

Moving out of town, or terminating your service?

Remember to return all your phones before you move out of town or when you terminate your phone service. You'll receive a credit on your bill for each phone you bring back to phoneCentre.

Moving into town?

If your new home is equipped with phoneCentre jacks, visit your nearest phoneCentre store to arrange for service. At the same time, select new phones from the exciting range of styles and colors.

Drillers on road after loss to Caps

The Edmonton Drillers are on the road for two games this week following one of their best games of the season, despite losing 3-1 to the powerful Vancouver Whitecaps last Wednesday.

Kevin Hector led the way for the Caps with three goals, two of them coming off passes from former Scottish International star Willie Johnston.

The Drillers only goal came from Hans Kraay Jr. in the twenty-seventh minute, when he took a back-heeled pass from John Anton and tricked Caps keeper Phil Parkes with a shot to the corner. That goal tied the game at 1-1, after Hector scored his first of three at the twelfth minute mark. Hector's second came in the seventy-third minute, an almost identical type goal as his first, when he took a low cross from Johnston.

However, with about four minutes left in the match and overtime looming if the Drillers managed to tie it up, Hector took a pass from Carl Valentine and broke in unmolested, beating Edmonton goalkeeper Jan Endeman cleanly.

The Drillers are in Fort Lauderdale, Florida tonight to play the Strikers, and then will travel to San Diego for a Sunday match with the Sockers.

The next home game for the Drillers is on Wednesday, June 13, when the Portland Timbers will visit Commonwealth Stadium.

Another win for Willowbrook Rangers

The St. Albert Willowbrook Rangers midget soccer team doubled Caernarvon 4-2 last Tuesday, and Monday blanked Claireview 6-0.

Murray Brown, Warren Coughlin, Corey O'Neill and Mitch Poulin scored in the win over Caernarvon. Brown and O'Neill scored twice each against Claireview. Singles went to Terry Meara and Jim Toomey.

Warren Coughlin was named player of the game against Caernarvon, while Andrew Howell was selected the player of the game in the match with Claireview.

In juvenile soccer action, the St. Albert Knobloch Rebels played an exhibition contest with Sherwood Park in the Park, losing 7-2.

YOU WON'T GET BY ME!

Vancouver Whitecaps midfielder Samuels pokes the ball away from Hans Kraay Jr. during the Edmonton Drillers Wednesday game with them. Vancouver won the match 3-1 before over 10,000 fans at Commonwealth Stadium.

Shop around for an open mortgage

Young people thinking about buying a home this spring should shop carefully for a mortgage. There has been some significant changes in the mortgage market lately - and some are well worth investigation.

One of the biggest boosts to the market lately has been the increased availability of fully open mortgages. Some of the banks along with Trust Companies and Credit Unions have several open mortgage plans available.

What this means is that you can now take out a mortgage - some with three year terms, some with five year, that can be paid down significantly each year. In other words, you can pay any amount extra on your mortgage once each year. This is above and beyond the regular payments. However, this money is applied directly to the principal (the amount you borrowed) and does not go to paying interest. If you do this once a year for two or three years, the amount of interest saved will be staggering.

For young couples starting out, there couldn't be a better type of mortgage. They can buy a house while please turn to page C 25 paying down the principal for this period of 3 or 5 years - the monthly payments will not change until the mortgage term is over. But - if the mortgage has a 3 year term and 3 extra payments of $5,000 are applied, the next mortgage will be reduced by $15,000. Of course - the interest and subsequent payments will be reduced drastically as well.

Have a look - the mortgage market is a competitive one - and there's bargains to be had. they're both working - and sock a bundle into the mortgage for 2, 3 or 5 years - with the intent of bringing down the monthly payments.

Once the payments are down to a reasonable level so that one wage earner can handle them on his own, plans for a family and reduction to one income living are much more realistic.

Selling Your House

YOU AGAINST THE WORLD

Ever feel like there's no one on YOUR side? It's you against the tax collector, you against the boss, you against the checkout line. Don't you wish, sometimes, that there was someone in your corner?

Selling a house is a hard job, alone in an uncharted world of offers and counteroffers, legal requirements and technical hitches. Many a homeowner has gotten lost in red tape, or tripped up on legal requirements he didn't know about. Others miss out entirely, too far from market knowhow to price a home realistically and sell it in good time. With no one in his corner, the unwary homeowner could take a beating.

WE'LL stand in your corner, and smooth the way to an easy, uncomplicated sale of your home. Count on our real estate professionals to know the route through that red tape. We're familiar with the local market. We know how to set realistic prices that a buyer will pay -- and we know how to get the buyers!

You don't have to face selling your house yourself. List with -

RODEO 118

JUNE 9 - 17

RCMP Musical Ride kicks off Rodeo Week

The world famous RCMP Musical Ride will begin Rodeo Week this year, with two performances on Saturday and Sunday, June 9 and 10.

The ride will perform at the St. Albert Kinsmen Rodeo Grounds on Riel Drive, with both performances starting at 2 p.m.

Although we in the RCMP like to feel that every member is involved in fostering good police community relations, the Musical Ride must take a prominent place in the foreground of the Force's continuing public relations program.

The origin of the Musical Ride is lost in history, but could probably be traced back to the development of early cavalry formations and their deployment during battle. This diversionary form of cavalry drill was probably developed into its formal setting by British troops stationed in India.

The British brought this drill with them to Canada and to the North-West Mounted Police. Two of the early influences were Sgt. Major Robert Belcher, formerly of the 9th Lancers, and Insp. W. G. Matthews, former riding master and Adjutant of the 3rd Kings Own Hussars. Although legend has it that the first Musical Ride was performed as early as 1876, this cannot be substantiated through records. The first recorded Musical Ride was performed in Regina under Insp. Matthews in 1887.

The Ride, consisting of 20 NCO's and men, was put on public display for the first time in 1904 under Insp. Frank Church. It was enthusiastically acclaimed at Winnipeg, Brandon, Qu'Appelle and Regina. Over the years the popularity of the Musical Ride has grown and it has become a familiar sight throughout Canada and most of the world.

Although an emphasis is placed on Canadian appearances, Ride members also act as goodwill ambassadors for Canada throughout the world. For tour purposes, Canada has been divided into seven geographical areas, and long-range planning provides a tour to each area every four years. By concentrating the tours on specific areas of the country each year and systematically touring within these areas, it is possible to minimize expense and time lost travelling between distant points.

The Musical Ride usually tours from early May until late November each year. Planning for any specific year begins in the early summer of the preceding year, with the itinerary finalized by February.

Moving 42 men and 36 horses plus equipment around the country is no mean organizational feat. Touring means living out of suitcases while travelling thousands of miles each year by aircraft, truck and bus. Both men and horses have found themselves in extraordinary accommodations. In 1953, while participating in Queen Elizabeth's Coronation, the men camped in tents pitched in London's Hyde Park. The horses have found themselves bedded down in hockey arenas and parking garages. Every effort is made to obtain stabling accessible to the general public and the overall success of the Ride is due in part to the personal contact this

Who will wear the crown?

As rodeo days draw closer, the suspense grows for four St. Albert girls. Each is a contestant in the Kinsmen Rodeo Queen contest, and on Saturday, their suspense will end. By 2:30 p.m. either Joy Van Domselaar, Pam Fussell, Rochelle Ohotinsky or Susan Beattie will be crowned as this year's rodeo queen. The crown will be placed on her head by St. Albert businesswoman Terry Farlinger, herself a one-time Miss Canada. CKST's John Coonie will handle the emcee's duties for the ceremony. The choosing of the queen will be at the rodeo grounds at 2:30, after the Musical Ride and before the Pony Chucks ...

The girls have varied backgrounds with a wide range of interests. All express an interest in horse-back riding, and some skill at this sport was a factor in the judges' decision for the first time this year.

JOY VAN DOMSELAAR

Joy Van Domselaar is a grade 12 student at Paul Kane High School who has lived here all her life. Joy likes to ski, swim and ride horses. She also enjoys modelling and hopes to make a career of it. She feels that if she were to win the queen's honours, she would work hard to promote the rodeo, welcome visitors. She believes that the rodeo queen brings a touch of glamour to the rough and tumble events that is a welcome addition.

The contest has so far proved exciting to Joy. She has enjoyed meeting the many different people which the opportunity has afforded. She has also learned something about public relations and broadcasting. The venture has yielded a variety of experiences.

Joy has had several years to look around St. Albert, and thinks the city needs some more entertainment facilities, such as theatres, discos and other places where young St. Albert residents can spend their money without leaving their hometown. She does not wish to see St. Albert become part of Edmonton, and she thinks St. Albert should grow only to the extent that there are services and facilities to serve it adequately. She wishes the best of luck to all her competitors.

PAM FUSSELL

Pam Fussell is a Grade 10 student at Paul Kane who has lived in St. Albert since she was the ripe old age of seven. She likes to swim, ride, roller skate and go camping. She also derives pleasure from working with children.

As queen, Pam hopes she would create interest in the rodeo by promoting its various events. At social events, she would help the committee in any way she could, making visitors welcome and talking to guests.

Pam's life in St. Albert has led her to believe there could be more recreation facilities in the city, such as pools, a roller skating club or a skateboard club. She also sees a need for an arts centre, for painting, music and drama. In addition, she feels more well-equipped programs for children are needed.

Rodeo parade shaping up

The 1979 Rodeo Parade, to be held on Saturday, June 16, is beginning to shape up according to Parade co-chairman Germaine Montpetit.

The parade, which for the first time is organized by the St. Albert and District Chamber of Commerce, has fifty-five entries so far, five of them bands. This number is down from last years number of entries.

Dignitaries lined up for the event so far include Mayor Ron Harvey, MLA Myrna Fyfe, MP Peter Elzinga and Provincial Tourism Minister Al Adair, (although Mr. Adair hasn't been confirmed yet).

There is still time to enter the parade, either a float or a band, and you can call Germaine at 459-5535.

This year's parade will form on St. Vital Avenue, adjacent to the old rodeo grounds. The parade will travel west on St. Vital, south on Mount Royal, east on the Mission, south down Perron Street, then west on Sir Winston Churchill Avenue. The Parade will disband at Lions Park. The judges stand will be in front of the Community Hall. (See map on page B 5).

RCMP Musical/ Ride

Like the Musical Ride itself, dress and equipment are deeply rooted in Cavalry and Force tradition. The original NWMP uniform has undergone some changes over the years but the Scarlet Tunic has been with the Force since its inception. Initially, steel-gray or flesh coloured riding breeches were worn. In 1878, blue-black breeches with a jaunty yellow cavalry stripe were adopted. In 1901, the Stetson officially replaced the pill box hat. Long brown Strathcona riding boots also came into use in 1901, replacing brown or black Wellingtons. Today Ride members wear modern Review Order - Stetson, Scarlet Tunic, Sam Browne, breeches, Strathcona riding boots and spurs.

The horses' ceremonial shabracks or saddle blankets bear the fused letters MP, using the Force's regimental colours - royal blue and yellow. The fused MP is the registered brand of the Force, allotted to the North-West Mounted Police on June 7, 1887. Horses are equipped with English hunting saddles, white head ropes, and bridles with white brow-bands secured on each side by rosettes bearing the RCMP crest. The crest also appears on the breastplate of each Martingale.

The Maple Leaf pattern effect on the horses' rumps is created by the use of a metal stencil and brushing across the lie of the hair with a damp brush.

The lance is a cavalry weapon that dates back to earliest times. Lances were issued to the North-West Mounted Police "Originals" in 1874 for their march west across the plains. The lance used today by the Musical Ride has an overall length of 9 feet. The shaft is made of male bamboo, 1 to 1 1/2 inches in diameter and a red and white pennon is affixed immediately below the 12 1/2 inch chrome plated steel point.

The Musical Ride is performed by a full troop of 32 men and horses. It consists of the execution of a variety of intricate figures and movements, set to music of an appropriate tempo. Demanding utmost control, timing and co-ordination, these figures are formed by individual horses and riders, in twos, fours and eights at the trot and at the canter. Months of training and many miles around the riding school and practice field make horse and rider one. A 50 percent annual rotation of members provides equal parts of first and second year personnel.

Some of the more familiar Ride formations are: The "Bridal Arch," the "X," the "Shanghai Cross," the "Maze," and the "Dome." The highlight of each performance is the "Charge," when the crimson-topped lances are lowered and men and horses move forward at the gallop. The conclusion of the performance is the March Past performed to the strains of the Force's Regimental March and the Musical Ride traditionally salutes the guest of honour.

Past tours have taken men and horses to every Canadian province, most states in the U.S.A., Belgium, Bermuda, Denmark, England, France, Germany, Holland, Ireland, Japan and Switzerland.

Who will wear the crown?

Pam too says she does not want to see St. Albert become part of Edmonton. She says housing there is cramped and unattractive when compared with St. Albert.

SUSAN BEATTIE

A Grade 10 student at Paul Kane, Susan enjoys gym, athletics, horseback riding, dancing and rock music.

As she reflected on the role of the queen, Susan said she must be willing to put herself out to chat with visitors and attend all the social functions and events that go with the crown. She has enjoyed the horseback riding part of the contest, as well as the people she has met.

Susan has lived here five months, after moving to Canada from Wales. She would like to see some of the customs of her former home transplanted to Canada such as the Morris Dancers that perform at fairs and parades. She also would be pleased to see a riding stable in St. Albert.

Despite the fact she is a relatively new resident here, Susan is aware of the annexation bid by Edmonton and has developed strong feelings for St. Albert. She is definite in her belief that St. Albert should remain a separate city.

All the girls expressed gratitude to the Kinsmen for giving them the chance to be in the pageant, and wished each other luck.

ROCHELLE OHOTINSKY

Rochelle is a Grade 12 student at St. Albert High. She is enthusiastic about drama, and enjoys skiing, horseback riding, and music.

Rochelle thinks the rodeo queen serves as a kind of figurehead, representative of the rodeo. She captures interest and extends a warm welcome to rodeo goers.

At this stage in the contest, Rochelle is enjoying the pleasant experience, particularly all the people she has met. The radio commercials prepared by the girls provided a chance for Rochelle to have a look at the field in which she hopes to work -- radio and television.

Rochelle puts a movie theatre and a large park at the top of her shopping list for St. Albert. Having lived here nearly all her life, she feels strongly that St. Albert should fight annexation by Edmonton, and would prefer that growth be aimed in the direction of Morinville.

RCMP Regimental Ball - a gala affair

Something new for St. Albert will be an RCMP Regimental Ball, where members of the RCMP Musical Ride will highlight what will be a very colorful "high class" dance.

The ball, hosted by the Kinsmen Club of St. Albert, is run in conjunction with the touring RCMP Musical Ride, here for two performances on June 9 and 10.

The ball will be held at the Club Mocombo on the St. Albert Trail, and will feature such dignitaries as St. Albert's Mayor Ron Harvey and his wife; N.C.O. St. Sgt. George Siemens I/C of the St. Albert RCMP Detachment and his wife; Inspector J. D. Walker, I/C of the RCMP Musical Ride; Officer Commanding of the St. Albert RCMP Subdivision

Inspector R. E. Baughen and his wife; and Inspector R. D. Crerar representing the acting Commander of K Division in Edmonton and his wife.

Kinsmen planning hectic rodeo week

The St. Albert Kinsmen Club, once again organizers of the annual Rodeo Week and "Rainmaker Rodeo," have plenty of action lined up for the week, beginning on Saturday.

The world famous RCMP Musical Ride will kick off the week, with performances on Saturday, June 9 and Sunday, June 10 at the Rodeo grounds on Riel Drive. The half hour shows begin at 2 p.m.

In conjunction with the Musical Ride, the Kinsmen have planned an "elite" RCMP Regimental Ball for Friday, June 8 at the Club Mocombo.

Following the Musical Ride, there will be the "Pony Chucks," otherwise known as the Northern Alberta Pony Chuckwagon and Chariots. Those shows or races, will begin at 2:35 p.m., this Saturday and Sunday.

The rodeo queen will be crowned at the Musical Ride on Sunday, June 10.

The actual Rainmaker Rodeo gets underway on Friday, June 15 at 6:30 p.m., with the first show of the five event Canadian Rodeo Cowboys Association spectacular.

At 8:30 p.m. on June 15, following the rodeo, the professional chuckwagon races will take place, and this has proven to be one of the most exciting parts of rodeos around Western Canada. The midway, Wagner Shows, opens its gates at 6 p.m. on June 15.

One feature of the midway will be the Midnight Kraze, between midnight and 4 a.m.

Anyone can ride all rides for $5.

On Saturday, June 16, a pancake breakfast sponsored by the St. Albert Supper Lions Club at Lions Park will take place from 7 a.m. till 10 a.m.

The rodeo parade, this year sponsored by the St. Albert and District Chamber of Commerce, takes place along several streets in St. Albert. The parade gets underway at 1 a.m., beginning at the old rodeo grounds on St. Vital and Highway 2.

There are several other events tied in with the celebration of St. Albert's 118th birthday.

All weekend, the new Meadowview fastball diamonds will hum with action with the St. Albert Rainmaker Invitational Fastball Tournament. The tourney will see four St. Albert teams and four others compete for a total of $2,000 in prize money. The winner will take home $1,000.

The Kinsmen will also have their now annual St. Albert Kinsmen Casino. The three-day affair will be held at the St. Albert Inn, with opening night on Thursday, June 14. The casino opens that day at 6 p.m., and will run to midnight. The next day, Friday, will see the same hours of operation. On Saturday, June 16, an early start will see hours from 2 p.m. to midnight.

On the rodeo grounds, the exciting M.F. Wagner Shows will provide midway thrills and spills as they have been doing over the past few years. The B.C. based midway operation has proven to be a favorite in St. Albert during rodeo weekend.

So as you can see ... Rodeo Week 118 is one of those "fun for all" events, so put on your cowboy hat, your boots, and join in on all the fun.

From novice to professional

Rodeo schools and the Permit Holder system enable the novice to learn and develop skills so that he can earn professional status.

RODEO SCHOOLS

Aspiring rodeo contestants come from big cities as well as ranches.

Fledgling ropers, steer wrestlers, and bronc and bull riders often attend rodeo schools, where top professionals give lessons in the various events.

Students learn how to purchase and care for rodeo equipment, and they learn the fundamentals of the events they are best qualified for.

The schools, run on a commercial basis, get the novice started right, saving him years of frustration and expense.

PERMIT HOLDERS

The Canadian Rodeo Cow

boys' Association started its own apprentice system in 1960. This enables the new cowboy, by purchasing a permit card, to test his skill in major league competition before actually joining pro ranks.

One of the Association's primary rules is that no full-fledged member may compete in any but Association sanctioned rodeos.

The permit-holder is allowed to enter non-C.R.C.A. contests, and also those Association rodeos willing to accept permits, until he wins $1,000 in one year or $2,000 total at Association rodeos. Then he forfeits his special status, and must decide whether to join the Association or revert to novice competition.

During 1974 the C.R.C.A. made it mandatory that a contestant win $1,000 while competing on a permit before he was eligible for a full membership in the Association.

Saddle bronc riding

The identify of the first men to tangle with a bucking horse is hidden in history, but saddle bronc riding is the cornerstone of all rodeo competition. Experience and "know how" are paramount in this event where rules are strictly in favour of the animal.

EQUIPMENT

Saddles are uniform in design. They must comply with standards set forth by the C.R.C.A. One rein is used; usually of braided manila, some six feet long and an inch and one half thick. It is fastened to the bucking horse halter. Spurs are short-shanked, with dull rowels. Chaps are of light leather, snugged tight around the thigh.

RULES

A rider is disqualified for:
1. Failing to keep heels over the break of the bronc's shoulder until the first jump out of the chute is completed. (Called "starting" the horse).

2. Touching animal or equipment with free hand during the ride.

3. Losing a stirrup.

4. Bucking off before the official end of the ride. (Length of ride may be 8 or 10 seconds. Choice is the stock contractors, usually based on the size of the arena).

HOW THEY RIDE

Leaving the chute, the rider tries at once to find the "timing" with the bronc's action. Properly executed, his spurred feet fall into a rhythmic stride, going to the animal's shoulders as it kicks high behind, moving back toward the saddle's cantle as the bronc jumps.

Some common causes of buck-offs are: Too long a rein, letting the rider back up on the cantle and then thrown forward; Too short a rein, pulling him over the horse's head; A spurred foot catching momentarily in the animal's shoulder, which levers him off on the side the spur hangs up.

Saddle Bronc Champion for 1978

Melvin Coleman
Bobby Orr didn't do it. Gordie Howe didn't do it. Guy Lafleur didn't do it. But Melvin Coleman has done it. What Coleman has done is win five championships in his first five seasons as a professional athlete, including the 1978 Saddle Bronc and All Around Titles. Those accomplishments represent the fourth Saddle Bronc crown in five years and the first All Around for the 22 year old native from Pierceland, Saskatchewan. No one has dominated the Saddle Bronc event to that extent in the 35 year history of the Canadian Rodeo Cowboys Association.

Coleman had the 1978 Saddle Bronc championship wrapped up after five go rounds at the Canadian Finals Rodeo but had to sweat out the final go-round before claiming the All Around Title. Other bronc riders were seen wearing shirts proclaiming the CFR to be the "Mel Coleman Benefit" during that last performance.

In commenting on his saddle bronc win the ultra modest Coleman said, "I drew the six best horses at the CFR and that's what made it possible." No doubt the stock contributed to his success as he placed in every go-round, including a first place 85 on Vold's Sarcee Sorrel and a magnificent 91 on Kesler's Knott Inn.

However, his record shows that there is much more to his success than drawing good bucking stock. There are factors such as ability, consistency and determination. He has qualified for each of the first five Canadian Finals Rodeo, winning four of them. He was the Rookie of the Year in 1974. He qualified as well for his fifth National Finals Rodeo in 1978, meaning that he has been among the top 15 saddle bronc riders in the world for the last five years.

His next goal is to win a world championship. He came very close by finishing second in the world at the 1978 National Finals Rodeo.

In pro rodeos in Canada in 1978 he placed 25 times in saddle bronc riding and three times in a timed event, enough to qualify him for a Please Turn to Page B 15

The bull-fighting clowns

The outlandishly colored shirts and ridiculous baggy pants of the rodeo clowns are more than a laugh-provoking costume; they are respected badges of a rare kind of courage.

Clowns in rodeo are not specialists in comedy. They are there to prevent tragedy. They are brave men first and funny men second. And the real reason for their presence in the arena - the bucking bulls - is no laughing matter.

The cross-bred Brahma Bull is probably the most irascible of all the world's domesticated animals. They are the only animals in rodeo regarded as potential killers. Although they may appear docile in the pasture or in the holding pens, separated from the herd and turned out of the chutes, they have - their slashing hooves, horns and tremendous weight.

Despite their bulk they can move like a panther. They hold no fear or men on horseback either and will attack without hesitation. For that reason, mounted pick-up men cannot be used to help rescue the cowboy. The bulls simply won't let horses get close.

To avoid the bull's charge, whether he bucks off or jumps off at the end of the ride, the bull rider must rely on a fast set of legs and the courage of the rodeo clown.

The clown moves in to distract the bull, to allow the cowboy to reach safety. The job is complicated if the rider, injured in the fall, is unable to run. The bull takes after the handiest target, so the clown must be in close when the rider goes down. Worst of all, he must stay in close until the cowboy makes good his escape.

Often you will see the wildly garbed clowns competing in contest events -- wrestling steers or riding bronces - but few contestants have any desire to trade jobs with the rodeo clown. His is a lonely profession.

Bull riding

Serious injury occurs more often in this event than in any other in rodeo. Capable of savage, sustained bucking, cross-bred Brahma Bulls first were introduced into the arena in 1921. Some cowboys claim a Brahma Bull can buck anybody off, anytime they turn on full power. One thing is certain; the snuffy, slack-hided animals can devise more spine-rattling action in the arena than any other breed of cattle. Fast and powerful, most of them weigh over 1,500 pounds. Staying in the middle of one calls for balance and a strong riding arm. The loose-hided animals add injury to insult by trying to gore or trample a fallen rider.

EQUIPMENT

Woven with a single handhold, a flat-braided length of Manila rope about an inch and a quarter in width is used - noose fashion around the bull - set just behind the animal's shoulders. A weighted bell is also attached to the rope, which allows it to fall free when the ride is completed. Tightly strapped spurs and a riding glove complete necessary gear. Chaps of the "shotgun" variety, so-called for their close-fitting length, are sometimes worn.

RULES

A rider is disqualified for:

1. Failing to have a bell attached to his rope.
2. Tougling his mount with his free hand at anytime during the ride.
3. Bucking off before official end of ride (eight seconds).

HOW THEY RIDE

More leniency is shown than in saddle and bareback bronc riding. A bull rider is not required to spur his mount but may receive additional credit from the judges if he does so.

If possible, the rider stays seated close up on his rope hand-hold, legs held slightly forward clutching the bull's rib cage. Slipping back off the rope, thus straightening the riding arm, the bull's power will jerk a rider's hand loose, usually the next jump. Spinning bulls are considered more hazardous to ride than those which buck straightaway. There is more danger of being trampled or butted if a rider falls to the inside of the whirling animal. Since the bulls fight a man on horseback just as eagerly as one on foot - unlike saddle and bareback broncs - no pick-up men are used. Instead a rider dismounts on his own, and depends on the bull-baiting clown to keep the animal's attention while he gets out of range.

Bareback Champion - for 1978

Dale Trotter

Dale Trotter has written the record book for Canadian bareback riders. Seven Canadian championships, six of them in consecutive years speak for themselves. He missed the title three years in a row, but came back to clinch the record in 1978. He also holds the earnings record for the event with a total of $10,069 in 1977.

Ironically, after being the leading money winner in Canada for each of the previous nine seasons, he slipped to second place in the regular season standings to qualify for CFR V. The change in routine obviously changed his luck, as he took over the lead in the third go with a first place 84 on Calgary's Moon Rocket and topped the fourth go as well, with an 84 aboard Franklin's Indian Sign. His victory was far from a run away, however, going down to the last head of stock.

The Rodeo Cowboy

In no other sport are the risks greater - and the security less - than in rodeo. Yet no athletes are more dedicated than the rodeo cowboy.

Why?

Rodeo is more than a sport - it is also, and most importantly perhaps, a way of life. It is the only sport in the world to have developed from the skills required in a work situation. And yet, today, rodeo cowboys may come from any background. It is just as likely that he is a teacher, businessman, fireman or salesman as it is that he comes from a ranch background. It is even more likely that he earns his entire livelihood by competing in the sport on a full-time, year-round basis. The chances are excellent that he perfected his skills at rodeo schools rather than on the range.

Why does rodeo continue to attract talented young athletes in ever increasing numbers? It is certainly neither money nor fringe benefits nor security. Rodeo cowboys receive no salaries nor guarantees, no travelling nor expense allowances, no subsidies nor medical plans, no pension benefits nor retirement schemes, no coaches nor trainers nor equipment. Rodeo cowboys must pay an entry fee, in hard cash, at each rodeo in order to compete.

The only payment rodeo cowboys receive is what they can win in fierce competition in the arena, against other cowboys and against rank animals.

Yes, a cowboy can earn more in a few seconds than most people earn in a month - if he is talented and if he is lucky. But for each cowboy who wins there are a hundred who do not. Each time a rodeo cowboy competes he accepts the risks that are a part of the sport, both financial and physical.

Is the strong attraction for rodeo and the complete dedication of its contestants rooted in the challenge to succeed, to be a winner, to be a champion, solely on one's own abilities? Probably. Is it the desire of the rodeo cowboy to achieve satisfaction and glory, regardless of the risks involved, on his own terms, as his own man? Definitely yes.

These values have created the energies which have enabled rodeo not just to survive but to grow; to achieve a million dollar season; to attract national corporate support; to draw more than two million spectators; to attain major league status.

And at the heart of it all is the rodeo cowboy - a unique athlete in a unique sport.

Rimrock Drilling Wagon

The title "Wagonmaster" is not used lightly in the world of chuckwagon racing, but if ever anyone fits that description it is Ralph Vigen.

In his 24th year of competition the veteran from Grande Prairie won his fifth Canadian and World championship - a record - and also set a single season earnings record by winning $24,507 with his Rimrock Drilling wagon.

The records also show that he has placed 22 wagons in the top five in the standings over those 24 years. And that may be a greater testimonial to his skill and consistency than the five crowns.

Like Old Man River, the quiet Wagonmaster from Grande Prairie just keeps rollin' along. But in Vigen's case there is seldom anyone in front of him.

Bareback bronc riding

This is the youngest of rodeo's three standard riding contests. Developed in the arena, it has no tie-in with regular ranch duties. Since becoming a requirement at all C.R.C.A. approved rodeos some 20 years ago, bareback bronc riding has become one of the sport's most popular events.

EQUIPMENT

Instead of a saddle, a double-thick leather pad, lined with sheep-skin called a rigging, is cinched on the horse's back. No stirrups or rein are used. Slightly off-centre on the top of the rigging is a leather handhold. This handhold is the only thing a rider has to hang on to. Bareback riders like the hand hold as snug-fitting as possible for better grip. Spurs and a glove are the only other riding gear needed, but chaps often are worn.

RULES

A rider is disqualified for:

1. Failing to keep heels over the break of the animal's shoulder until first jump out of the chute is completed (called "starting" the horse).

2. Touching animal or equipment with free hand during the ride.

3. Bucking off before official end of the ride. (Length of the ride may be eight or 10 seconds. Choice is the stock contractor's, usually based on the size of the arena).

HOW THEY RIDE

The higher and wilder a bareback riding spurs, the better his markings by the judges. Feet forward at all times, in contrast to saddle bronc riding style, the rider clings close against the rigging handhold and tries to keep his legs falling in time with the bronc's jumps. A strong hand and fine sense of balance are needed to keep from being jerked away from the handhold, a situation that generally leads to a buck-off.

When Steve Dunham of Turner Valley, Alberta marked an 86 on his last horse, Trotter had to be second or better in the go-round to win the title. He did just that. Altogether, he placed five times.

One of the many professional cowboys to take to the air, "Trapper" flies his own plane to rodeos across North America. He started his rodeo career in Northern Alberta, entering the saddle bronc and bareback riding. He has also picked up a few dollars in the wild horse racing, although he generally confines himself to the riggin' riding.

Trapper credits the encouragement and backing he has had from friends for his success. Particularly instrumental in that department has been fellow Calgarian Jack La Vallie.

Steer wrestling

Developed in the rodeo arena, steer wrestling, like bareback bronc riding, never was a part of ranch work. Its origin, more than 40 years ago, is laid at the door of a black cowboy, Bill Pickett, while working in a Wild West show.

With time taken between flags, steer wrestling is a series of controlled moves beginning when the contestant, aided by another mounted cowboy called "the Hazer", leaps from a running horse to the steer's horns, bringing the animal to a halt and then wrestling it to the ground.

EQUIPMENT

Other than a steer wrestling mount and the hazer, whose duty is to keep the steer running as straight as possible, none is needed.

RULES

Officials are two or more timekeepers, a field and a scoreline judge. The contestant waits in the box, with hazer posted on opposite side of the release gate, until steer crosses the designated scoreline. Breaking the barrier adds a 10 second penalty. The steer must be on its feet before being wrestled down. Running falls do not count. Steer must be flat on its side, all four legs extended, before official time is taken.

THINGS TO WATCH

Where a steer wrestler's feet hit the ground after taking hold of the steer, is a key to further action. A good steer wrestling horse sweeps by, leaving the cowboy's legs extended at a 45 degree angle to the steer's path. Bringing the animal around in an arc, at the top of the swing, the steer wrestler reaches for the right horn tip, using his left hand as additional leverage under the steer's jaw. A combination of momentum and being off balance literally causes the steer to throw himself.

Bull Riding Champion - for 1978

Don Johansen

Waylon and Willie are wrong. You should let your babies grow up to be cowboys - if they turn out like Don Johansen.

This young rodeo athlete proved that a mix of talent, desire, conditioning and attention to business could produce a championship. And it did, in his third year as a pro and in his third trip to the Canadian Finals Rodeo.

There was nothing easy about Johansen's title. He went into the final go round in the lead, but when Dan Lowry of Rocky Mountain House, Alberta recorded the highest mark of the entire rodeo, a 92, the pressure was on Johansen. He had to place in order to win the title. He did just that with a mark of 86. That gave him a clean sweep at the CFR, placing in all six go rounds.

Johansen was the only regular season leader to win a Canadian title in the five major events, capping off his best rodeo season. Johansen grew up around rodeo with his first rodeo win coming at the age of 11. He won $68 for riding a steer and was hooked on the sport.

He's come a long way since then. His total earnings for 1978 came to just under $21,000, including trips to both the CFR and the NFR. He placed at three go rounds in Oklahoma City to finish the year in seventh place in the world.

1978 may have been a banner year for Don Johansen, but it is only an indication of the good things to come for the 23 year old bull rider. With his talent and desire, the sky is the limit.

THE CITY OF St. Albert

Notice of Public Hearing

1. The City of St. Albert proposes to pass Bylaw No. 15/79 to adopt an Area Structure Plan for Inglewood Park, as shown on the attached map.

2. The purpose of the Area Structure Plan is to provide a framework for subdivision and future development of those lands presently within the City of St. Albert boundaries.

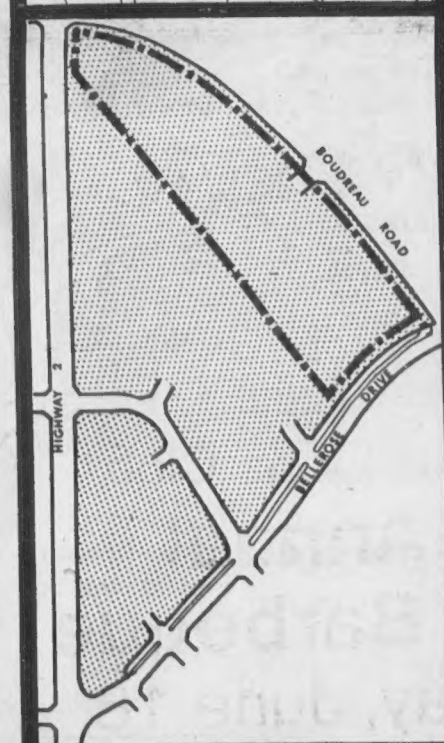

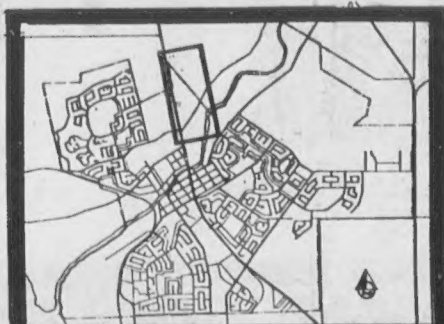

The proposed land use concept is General Commercial.

3. The proposed bylaw may be examined between the hours of 9:00 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. weekdays at the Office of the City Clerk in City Hall, St. Albert. Enquiries regarding the proposal may be made at the Planning Services Department at City Hall, St. Albert.

4. Council will hold a Public hearing on the proposed bylaw on Monday, June 11, 1979 at 7:45 p.m. in the Council Chambers, City Hall Annex, at which time any person claiming to be affected by the proposed bylaw shall be afforded the opportunity to be heard.

5. Written representations concerning the manner in which any provision of the proposed bylaw may affect him will be received by the City Clerk until 12:00 noon, Friday, June 8, 1979.

6. A copy of this notice has been forwarded to the owners of lands affected by the Area Structure Plan.

THE CITY OF St. Albert Notice of Public Hearing

1. The City of St. Albert proposes to pass Bylaw No. 22/79 to institute an amendment to Schedule C of the text of Zoning Bylaw 23/71 pertaining to sideyards and the height of buildings backing onto an arterial roadway.

2. SIDEYARDS

(A) It is proposed to establish a minimum sideyard requirement of 5 feet in width each side in the R1c zones when an attached garage is proposed to be constructed.

The amendment will make uniform the regulations pertaining to attached garages in both the R1b and R1c zones.

(B) Where a carport is proposed in an R1c zone the abutting sideyard shall be a minimum of 4 feet in width.

(C) Where an attached garage or carport is proposed to be constructed and the dwelling is greater than one storey, the minimum sideyard shall be 7½ feet in width.

3. HEIGHT RESTRICTION

Where a single-family (R1) dwelling is constructed which backs onto an arterial road, the top of any window opening for a habitable room shall be no more than 12 feet above the lot grade.

4. The proposed bylaw may be examined between the hours of 9:00 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. weekdays at the Office of the City Clerk in City Hall, St. Albert. Enquiries regarding the proposed amendments may be made at the Planning Services Department at City Hall, St. Albert.

5. Council will hold a Public Hearing on the proposed bylaw on Monday, June 18, 1979 at 7:45 p.m. in the Council Chambers, City Hall Annex, at which time any person claiming to be affected by the proposed bylaw shall be afforded the opportunity to be heard.

6. Written representations concerning the manner in which any provision of the proposed bylaw may affect him will be received by the City Clerk until 12:00 noon, Friday, June 15, 1979.

Bucking horses

The professional horses of rodeo work less, live as well, and last longer than any other "working horse" in the world. Even more than the slick thoroughbreds cared for on the racing farms, the shaggy, ill-tempered bronc is the pampered prince of the equine kingdom.

Rodeo broncs buck in eight and 10 second stretches. Even the busiest bucking horses are rarely turned out of the chute more than twice a week or more than 30 times a year.

No one can train a horse to buck. He either likes it or he doesn't. All his owners can do is give him plenty of rest, feed and water and hope his morale stays high enough so that he will go on trying to flatten every rider who crawls on his back.

A big part of the morale building is giving the horse a better than even chance to win. That's why the bronc ride in professional rodeo is limited to either eight or 10 seconds, depending upon the arena conditions.

Bucking horses are at their worst the first two jumps from the chute and a cowboy who gets past that first storm has a good chance of riding the bronc.

Cruel treatment of bucking horses is a myth. Besides being specifically forbidden by a set of rules -- written in harmony by the Canadian Rodeo Cowboys' Association and the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals -- mistreatment of bucking horses would be a good way for any rodeo contractor to commit economic suicide. Underfed or mistreated horses simply won't buck.

The average age of all bucking horses in pro rodeos is somewhere between 12 and 15 years and nearly every major bucking string boasts one old reliable well past 20.

Calf roping

A co-ordinated effort of horse and rider, against time, calf roping has been honed to such a high competitive polish that only tenths of a second divide the winners. Since every part of a roper's actions are planned to coincide with his mount, any disruption of the pattern costs precious seconds. A solid, true-working horse is valuable property. Today such animals command a four figure price tag.

EQUIPMENT

Lariat ropes, generally about 25 feet long and three-eighths of an inch thick, are tied at one end to the saddle horn, the other end forming the catch loop. If he misses the first throw, the roper may use a second rope if coiled and ready on the saddle. He is allowed only two throws. Missing them both, he must retire with "no time". A slimmer six foot length rope, usually tucked in the roper's belt, and called a piggin string, is used to tie the calf. Horse gear, i.e., saddle, bridle, etc. are roper's own selection.

RULES

The event calls for two or more timekeepers, field flag judge and scoreline flag judge. Length of score (headstart) given the calf depends on the size of the arena. The roper remains behind a barrier until the calf crosses the scoreline. Breaking through the barrier adds 10 seconds to the roper's time.

Calves used may not average over 350 pounds. After the catch, the roper must throw the calf by hand, cross any three legs for the tie, then signal for time by raising his hands. The field judge then approves the tie.

THINGS TO WATCH

Long, tedious hours of practice and schooling go into the action you see in the arena. More than the roper, watch the horse, as it rates the speed of the calf, stops on cue, then backs quickly to keep the rope taut as the roper runs to his quarry. How well the horse carries out these maneuvers is the difference between winning and losing. Calf-roping mounts may be of any bloodline but, because of their natural, early speed, quarter horses are used more than any other. The most important requisite, though, is heart.

The Canadian Rodeo Cowboys' Association

The five Ws (who, what, why, when and where) of the Canadian Rodeo Cowboys Association are:

Who: The C.R.C.A. is made up of more than 600 regular members and 800 permit holders.

Regular members may compete only at C.R.C.A. approved rodeos while permit holders have the option of competing at non-approved rodeos. Only regular members are eligible for the Canadian Finalist standings and the rodeo championships of Canada.

What: The C.R.C.A. is the governing body of professional rodeo in Canada. It is to rodeo what the N.H.L. is to hockey. The C.R.C.A. establishes the rules for the sport, sanctions rodeos, maintains standings, promotes rodeo and declares the rodeo champions of Canada. In 1978 the Association sanctioned 25 chuckwagon meets and 70 rodeos including the Canadian Finals Rodeo, which is co-sponsored with the Edmonton Exhibition Association. The total prize money at the 1978 events was $1,056,483, a record and the first time that the million dollar mark has been reached.

Why: In most sports the governing body is made up of team owners. However, in rodeo, the events are organized and sponsored by volunteer, community based groups; consequently, the full-time participants in the sport, the rodeo cowboys, become administrators as well as contestants. This is a unique situation in pro sports but it has worked well because the Association has consistently kept the welfare of all segments of the sport - the public, the sponsoring group, the stock contractor and the cowboy - in balance so that no one group has not prospered at the expense of the others.

When: The C.R.C.A. was founded in 1944 to provide standard rules, provide competent judges, obtain adequate purse money and to promote the sport. Great advances have been made in the last 35 years with rodeo taking on major league status in many parts of the country.

Rodeo, as well as being a sport, is now big business, attracting more than two million spectators in 1978.

Where: The C.R.C.A. governs pro rodeo throughout Canada and because of its reciprocal agreement with the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association of the United States, all C.R.C.A. sanctioned rodeos are also approved by the ... P.R.C.A.

Therefore, points earned by the cowboys at C.R.C.A. rodeos count in the P.R.C.A. standings as well.

The Canadian Rodeo Cowboys' Association fully expects that 1979 will be the greatest season on record in terms of excitement, thrills and action for the public.

Saddle Bronc

chance at the All Around Championship. But his success in the timed events didn't come easily. While he started riding broncs as a youngster, his introduction to the timed events came much later, and with more difficulty. Spending many hours in the practice pen, he credits top hands like Lee Phillips and Edgar and Larry Robinson with helping him learn the events and qualify for the All Around standings.

"I'm going to try and be a good all around cowboy," Coleman said quietly at the CRCA awards banquet, adding that it was his greatest honour.

With determination, desire and skill, Melvin Coleman proved that anything is possible if you work hard enough.
